TIMEFORM VIEW: MONTESTREL looked a potentially useful recruit in running down Quel Destin late on at Chepstow last month, and on that evidence, looks capable of making his mark at this higher level. Never Adapt is a highly interesting recruit from France, having joined powerful connections who introduced Apple's Shakira in this race 12 months ago. Quel Destin and Cracker Factory are others to consider.

TIMEFORM VIEW: SINGLEFARMPAYMENT goes well fresh and boasts a solid record at this course. With The Young Master unlikely to go to post following his exertions here on Friday, Tom George's charge earns the vote ahead of Vicente, who was narrowly outpointed in this race 12 months ago. Calett Mad is also feared, along with the progressive Sharp Response and 2015 Gold Cup hero Coneygree.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: SINGLEFARMPAYMENT (6)
2: VICENTE (4)
3: CALETT MAD (8)

TIMEFORM VIEW: KALONDRA has long since threatened to win a race of this nature, and with conditions likely to be in his favour, is fancied to enhance the fine record of second-season chasers in this race. Rather Be and Mister Whitaker look obvious threats, while Movewiththetimes is another who has the ability to be involved at a bigger price.

TIMEFORM VIEW: SPEEDO BOY didn't look a complete natural over hurdles last autumn, but he gets his mark from outings around 2m and there's a very good chance that this useful Flat stayer will take off now tackling this sort of trip. Westend Story, Lygon Rock and Point of Principle head the opposition.
