ATR VERDICT: RED PALADIN won his reappearance last year off just 1lb higher and, with a C&D victory under his belt, he looks capable of conceding weight to most of these rivals. Bond Artist was well supported when finishing runner-up at Wolverhampton and is worth market check on her return to turf, but Substantivo is feared most on the back of a much-improved Kempton second earlier this month. His supporters will be pleased to see Kieren Fallon keep the ride.

Top Tip: RED PALADIN
Watch out for: SUBSTANTIVO

ATR VERDICT: SURCINGLE was unable to follow up her impressive Leicester debut when tried in Listed company at Newmarket in November. The cut in the ground may not have been to her liking, though, and her entry in the Oaks suggests she can thrive now stepped up to an extended 1m2f. Carthage, a 100,000 euro Goffs purchase, ran his best race over 1m1f at Goodwood in October before unsuccessfully trying a mile next time, and the extra yardage looks a big positive this time around. Votary can improve for his debut at Kempton and has to be considered a leading player for a yard in flying form.

Top Tip: SURCINGLE
Watch out for: CARTHAGE

ATR VERDICT: SAARREM caught the eye on debut at Lingfield as he missed the break before running on to take third and with that experience under his belt, he can begin to repay his $650,000 sales fee. Munatas also showed plenty of greenness first time out at Pontefract and can improve for that run. Shanti is a half-brother to Oaks and Irish Oaks winner Sariska and may fare better now switched to turf.

Top Tip: SAARREM
Watch out for: MUNATAS

ATR VERDICT: KNIGHTLY ESCAPADE looked set to fight out a finish when falling three out in a competitive hurdle at Sedgefield but he can bounce back now he reverts to the Flat. The son of Sakhee races off 4lb lower mark than when finishing a one-length second at this track last year and he looks ominously poised at the bottom of the weights. Perfect Heart holds an entry in the Chester Cup and could follow up a victory at Haydock if he is primed on his reappearance. Bob's World and New Youmzain arrive fresh from victory and look like lively players too.

Top Tip: KNIGHTLY ESCAPADE
Watch out for: PERFECT HEART

ATR VERDICT: New Bidder appeared to improve for a gelding operation when winning at Pontefract and another bold show would come as no shock. However, preference is for the third placed horse, MR MATTHEWS, as he is on the right end of a 4lb swing in the weights for just a one and a half-length defeat and can improve for that first outing of the season. Jazz could only manage seventh when sent off favourite for that heat but is entitled to strip fitter for that first run since November, while The Hooded Claw was third in a stronger 0-95 at Thirsk and may appreciate the extra yardage.

Top Tip: MR MATTHEWS
Watch out for: NEW BIDDER

ATR VERDICT: Beacon Tarn needs more returned to the turf, while Next Door resumes off a stiff-looking mark. The suggestion, therefore, is SEE CLEARLY, who made a satisfactory reappearance when sixth at Pontefract and she returns to her optimum trip off a 7lb lower mark than when last successful. Meandmyshadow disappointed on her seasonal bow at Thirsk but is feasibly handicapped now returned to 6f.

Top Tip: SEE CLEARLY

ATR VERDICT: Green Monkey signed off last season in the manner of a progressive sort and will surely prove better than a mark of 76 this term. James Fanshawe's string have started the season quietly, though, so a chance is taken on the well-drawn CAPTAIN DUNNE, who showed pieces of useful form last campaign, has a decent record fresh and is exceptionally well treated on the pick of his form. Port Alfred is unexposed and warrants plenty of respect, while the race-fit Red Baron holds claims too.

Top Tip: CAPTAIN DUNNE

Watch out for: RED BARON
