ATR VERDICT: Any support for the Jessie Harrington-trained Rae's Creek should be noted as he was a good winner on the level last time, while Idlewild left behind some very modest Flat form when tackling timber for the first time at Sligo latest. Rufino was beaten a long way into third over C&D latest but at least has hurdling experience, though not as much as ELISHPOUR, who contested Pattern races over timber in the winter, without success, before showing up well in a Killarney maiden in May. His experience could be put to good use here.

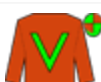

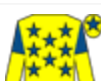

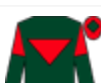

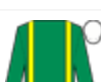

Top Tip: ELISHPOUR

Watch out for: RAE'S CREEK

ATR VERDICT: Alton Bay quickened nicely to land a bumper by six lengths here last time and is respected, while Cebuano was well beaten on the level at Leopardstown earlier this month, but that should have put him spot on for this assignment, having finished second at Punchestown when last tried over obstacles. LITTLE ROCKY gets the vote, though, as he was not disgraced over further at Roscommon, should relish this drop in trip and was beaten just a nose off 92 on the Flat so certainly doesn't lack ability.

Top Tip: LITTLE ROCKY

ATR VERDICT: OLWENBROOK was a shock 40-1 winner of a maiden hurdle at Roscommon, but there's plenty of evidence to suggest that was a fair race and a mark of 103 for her handicap debut could underestimate her. Swantyky is up 8lb for his win in a Downpatrick handicap, which means he is 5lb worse off with House Limit, who was less than three lengths back in second. Ram Them All has some fair from in maiden hurdles and could figure, as could Roscommon fourth The Yellow Bin.

Top Tip: OLWENBROOK

ATR VERDICT: With four horses coming into this on the back of successes, it could prove an informative event and means RIVERSIDE CITY is only a tentative choice. Gordon Elliott's charge was certainly not winning out of turn when getting off the mark at Gowran and could improve now he's in the winning groove. Eight Till Late stayed on well to score at Limerick, where he won his bumper, so he may save his best for that track, while Up The Hill romped to victory at Roscommon last time, but had been beaten in handicaps off marks in the 90s prior to that. Grand Partner, a gutsy winner at Cork, completes the quartet of recent winners.

ATR VERDICT: FETHARD PLAYER had been in excellent form prior to unseating at Killarney last time, but he can be forgiven that effort as he was badly impeded before coming to grief and looks better judged by his effortless success here prior to that run. Pennys Tune won nicely at Downpatrick but blotted her copybook when refusing to take part at Sligo last time, so a bigger danger could be Whatever It Takes, who runs off the same mark as when third at Limerick.

ATR VERDICT: He Is Top Class might not quite live up to his name, but he ran well to score narrowly at Roscommon and a 4lb rise looks fair, while Barney King is up 5lb for a similarly narrow success over C&D. Glasson Lad cannot be ruled out after finishing third at Sligo latest, but preference is for FORGET AND FORGIVE. The six-year-old has joined Dessie Hughes since making the frame twice at Uttoxeter and he could be well treated off a mark of 80 for his Irish debut.

ATR VERDICT: RUN FLY RUN followed up a solid debut effort at this track with an even better one when second over C&D and Willie Mullins' mare can hit the top spot at the third attempt. Rathmuck Native was only a neck behind the selection here last time but has had plenty more chances so may not have the same scope for improvement, while Cliffside Park was a close third at Downpatrick latest and cannot be ruled out.
