ATR VERDICT: Maulesden May posted a career-best effort when second over this trip at Ripon and is expected to be thereabouts again. Nevertheless, preference is for once-raced Richard Fahey inmate COLOUR ME HAPPY, who is fancied to step up on a solid debut second at Haydock. Juste Pour Nous is similarly entitled to come on for his introductory run at Chelmsford and could also figure at the finish, while any money for newcomer Injam, who holds an early entry in the Derby, would be notable.

Top Tip: COLOUR ME HAPPY

Watch out for: JUSTE POUR NOUS

Long Handicap: Rosy Ryan 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Sarah Joyce returned to winning ways over 1m1f here but the fact connections have opted to fit her with a first-time visor perhaps suggests she may not be entirely straightforward. The vote instead goes to unexposed three-year-old PUSHINGMYPATIENCE, who was narrowly denied off this mark at Thirsk last week. C&D winner Lil Sophella ran well at the same North Yorkshire circuit last time and is also worthy of shortlist inclusion.

Top Tip: PUSHINGMYPATIENCE
Watch out for: SARAH JOYCE

ATR VERDICT: John Wainwright representative MISS RANGER bolted up by eight lengths over the extended 1m here last time and although she's 13lb higher, she is entitled to improve for this additional furlong and may be capable of completing a double. Mr Sundowner has been raised 1lb for finishing third over this trip at Musselburgh but has solid place claims along with dropped-in-trip Ayr second Liberty Sky.

Top Tip: MISS RANGER

Watch out for: MR SUNDOWNER

3 (1)		82-4773	FRAGILE EARTH (IRE) 31 b f The Carbon Unit - Mad Madam Mym	3 9 - 0	R P Whelan J P Shanahan	66

ATR VERDICT: Sinakar is returning from a 453-day break and debuts for David O'Meara, so is worth monitoring closely in the betting. However, the safest option is MAWJOOD, who has been well supported at Wetherby and Ripon and is rated 80 on official figures. He has failed to justify favouritism the last twice but sets a much stronger form standard than 66-rated Irish raider Fragile Earth.

Top Tip: MAWJOOD

Watch out for: SINAKAR

ATR VERDICT: SCURR MIST won with ease over the extended 9f at Wolverhampton and could shrug off an 8lb rise now tackling this longer trip. King Of Paradise is proven over C&D and should give it his best shot from the front, although his latest effort at Catterick needs improving upon. Tectonic and Dhaurar Dhar might be keeping on late so are others to consider.

Top Tip: SCURR MIST
Watch out for: TECTONIC

ATR VERDICT: FIRST TO POST made all to strike in maiden company at Carlisle last time and looks ideally drawn to attack on the stands rail now making his handicap debut. Farkle Minkus left a favourable impression when romping to victory at Ayr and is interesting off an opening mark of 85, while Candelisa kept on well when scoring at Ayr and could appreciate the switch to this stiffer track.

Top Tip: FIRST TO POST
Watch out for: FARKLE MINKUS

ATR VERDICT: FRENCH PRESS triumphed by 13 lengths over 7f at Brighton and although the winning distance was likely exaggerated by the awful racing conditions that day, he rates the one to beat now turned out under a penalty. Keene's Pointe and White Flag posted solid efforts in defeat at Carlisle and could land minor money. Recent Thirsk winner Two Turtle Doves is consistent and can't be left out of calculations either.

Top Tip: FRENCH PRESS

Watch out for: KEENE'S POINTE
