ATR VERDICT: INN THE BULL showed signs of promise on the Flat earlier this year and should be one to do better now making his debut in this sphere. The son of Lope De Vega is bred for this sphere and represents a trainer who has experience of turning his recruits into useful hurdlers. Jazzy hasn't looked the same since winning on his second start over the sticks in July and could struggle to keep pace, with the main danger expected to be posed from Hazamar, who attracted support here earlier this month but met trouble on the bend.

Top Tip: INN THE BULL
Watch out for: HAZAMAR

Long Handicap: Welsh Designe 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: A tricky handicap to solve and the pin has landed on BENNACHIE, who represents an in-form trainer and should appreciate a step up in trip. Tim Vaughan's charge has been dropped a couple of pounds by the assessor and won't mind the forecast lively ground. King's Song shaped at Warwick recently as though his winning turn was near and is another who won't mind this extra stamina test, while Somerset Lias is often a bridesmaid but deserves to end his long winless run before long.

Top Tip: BENNACHIE
Watch out for: KING'S SONG

ATR VERDICT: AFTER EIGHT SIVOLA's chasing debut assignment at Newton Abbot was obviously made a lot easier by the early departure of 1-5 favourite Old Guard, but the six-year-old could do no more than win, and win well, and there should be plenty of improvement to come. He gets the vote to see off the consistent Canicallyouback and I'dliketheoption, who was still travelling well here earlier in the month before pecking and unseating Aidan Coleman four out.

Top Tip: AFTER EIGHT SIVOLA

ATR VERDICT: DOMINADA was an impressive all-the-way winner under Megan Carberry at Carlisle last week and, due to go up 15lb in the near future, it will be a little disappointing if he can't follow up. Sarpech looks the obvious danger carrying a 7lb penalty for his comfortable Huntingdon success although Maoi Chinn Tire, Today Please and Triple Chief are also capable performers and will be waiting to pounce on any mistakes from the aforementioned duo.

Top Tip: DOMINADA
Watch out for: SARPECH

ATR VERDICT: Smart bumper performer LILLIAN made the perfect start to her hurdling career at Towcester, jumping well and winning by a wide margin, and open to any amount of improvement, she gets the vote to follow up. Maid Of Milan made no mistake when sent off a short-priced favourite at Kempton in May (Hollow Bay second) and she warrants plenty of respect on her return to action, while seasonal/hurdling debutant Beyond Measure adds further spice to the race.

ATR VERDICT: SHE'S LATE hinted his turn was fast approaching when third over an extended 3m at Towcester earlier in the month and is expected to step up on that effort now cutting back in trip. Go On Henry has dropped to a workable mark and is worth a market check now fitted with first-time blinkers, while there could be improvement to come from Coeur De Fou, who drops into 0-100 company off top-weight and has cheekpieces refitted.

Top Tip: SHE'S LATE

ATR VERDICT: COTTESLOE has won four times on the Flat and is entitled to improve with the benefit of his hurdles debut spin at Hexham last month now behind him and also for the fitting of first-time cheekpieces. Beallandendall struck in a novices' hurdle over track and trip in March and has place claims if building on his Chepstow fourth latest. Another to consider for the minor money is New Member, who was third in a bumper here on debut and is having only his second run over timber.

Top Tip: COTTESLOE

Watch out for: BEALLANDENDALL
