ATR VERDICT: Straight Right would be the pick of the three-year-olds but, while he put in a solid performance in the Commonwealth Cup, a mark of 106 appears to be stiff enough. John Gosden has a strong hand with Johnny Barnes and Remarkable in the field and the latter is the pick of that pair. The son of Pivotal ended his 2016 campaign with a second-placed finish in the Balmoral Handicap at Ascot and he showed some encouraging signs when sixth in the Hunt Cup last time out. That said, the preference is for EARLY MORNING, who could take plenty of pegging back now dropped in trip. The six-year-old did plenty early on in the aforementioned Hunt Cup, but he arrives here on the same mark as when he found only subsequent Group 2 winner Acclaim too good in a handicap last September.

Top Tip: EARLY MORNING

ATR VERDICT: Spark Plug has improved plenty since winning the Cambridgeshire at Newmarket last September and comes into this having got off the mark in Listed company at Sandown on his latest start. Thikriyaat has plenty of ability but has clearly not had the cleanest of runs since his heart condition caused him problems last year at Goodwood. The first-time cheekpieces could bring about improvement but the vote goes to MOUNT LOGAN, who is extremely consistent in this company and his form last time behind Lord Yeats at Newmarket looks the strongest on offer. Best Of Days is the only three-year-old in the field but has to prove himself after a below-par effort at Royal Ascot.

Top Tip: MOUNT LOGAN

ATR VERDICT: MAGICAL MEMORY lost little in defeat when second in the Duke Of York stakes and bounced back from a tame run in the Diamond Jubilee Stakes when striking in conditions company at Haydock. Charlie Hills' charge sets the form standard for the rest to aim at and has the assistance of Frankie Dettori in the saddle. Hugo Palmer's improving three-year-old Koropick beat Intisaab in the Chipchase last time and has place claims, likewise Eqtiraan, who won in Listed company in Salisbury.

ATR VERDICT: Tiggy Wiggy and Mrs Danvers are two of the last three winners of this event but there does not appear to be anything of their class in this open renewal. That said, the two that stand out are CORINTHIA KNIGHT and Maggies Angel. The latter only found one too good in a Listed race at Newmarket last time out but she started slowly and was outpaced early on over 6f on that occasion. If she does so once again today then she will struggle to make up the ground in a race that is likely to be run at a fast pace. Corinthia Knight was not disgraced in the Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot and appears to have been saved for this event since then. Debutante's Ball gets plenty of weight from the aforementioned pair and her latest run in a Group 3 suggests that she could pose the biggest threat to the selection. Those looking for each-way alternatives should consider Connery, Lady Anjorica, Lynn's Memory and Mother of Dragons.

ATR VERDICT: Ghayadh won going away on his racecourse debut over 5f at Beverley and should improve for this step up in trip, while Usher represents Roger Charlton and Prince Khalid Abdullah and is a half-brother to 1m maiden scorer Balestra. He is worth a market check at least ahead of his first public appearance but slight preference is for another newcomer in HELVETIAN. Mick Channon's colt is certainly bred to have plenty of ability, being a half-brother to eight winners, he holds an entry in the Group 1 Phoenix Stakes next month and is the mount of top jockey Silvestre De Sousa.

Top Tip: HELVETIAN

ATR VERDICT: LINCOLN ROCKS displayed plenty of guts to see off all challengers in a 1m Listed contest on good to soft ground at Pontefract 11 days ago and this norther raider could take some passing if getting an easy lead again in this small-field handicap. Sante has filled the runner-up berth on both starts this term and should give another good account with Ryan Moore getting the leg up today, while Trilliant did the job with enough to spare when returned to this trip at Haydock latest to suggest an 8lb rise won't prevent another bold bid with the possibility of more to come.

ATR VERDICT: A tricky finale with plenty of last-time-out winners open to further progress, but KNIGHT DESTROYER makes the most appeal after his easy victory over this trip at Chepstow last month has worked out very well with five of his victims scoring since. Jonjo O'Neill's charge could defy a 9lb rise with conditions to suit again and further improvement on the cards. Sir Michael Stoute's Intellect looked crying out for further when landing a 1m2f on soft ground second time out and rates a big threat off a fair-looking mark of 80. Petitioner and Zack Mayo are others to consider.

Top Tip: KNIGHT DESTROYER
