ATR VERDICT: Olly Murphy has farmed races at this track of late and he has another live chance here with HURRICANE RITA, who was a handy winner over course and distance last time and has just an extra 4lb to carry here. Hollywood All Star remains well treated despite struggling of late and cheekpieces could help here, while the consistent pair, Akula and Yasir are others of note.

Top Tip: HURRICANE RITA (3)

ATR VERDICT: A contest not blessed with the best of jumpers, with Nicky Henderson's RATHER BE looking to get his chasing career back on track having unshipped Jerry McGrath at Plumpton last time. He remains a chaser of serious potential and a clear round here can see Cheltenham back on the agenda. Positively Dylan has a Wetherby victory sandwiched between two falls and can test the selection if at his best, while the mare Ivor's Queen can't be dismissed in receipt of weight on her chasing debut.

ATR VERDICT: The exciting novice WHISKEY IN THE JAR got back on the right track when routing the opposition at Uttoxeter last time and the promising son of Oscar should be following up here if he is to live up to his connections' lofty expectations. Dashing Perk somewhat disappointed when well fancied in some quarters for a Sandown handicap but it would be no surprise to see him bounce back now back amongst his fellow novices, while soft ground may not inconvenience Strawberry Spirit as much as the slog in heavy going did here last time and a first-time tongue-tie can help.

ATR VERDICT: JARLATH can take full advantage of his position at the foot of the weights in this select handicap and, under a 5lb claimer, might not need to improve much on his latest Fontwell effort now upped in distance. Like the selection, Princeton Royale wouldn't be winning out of turn judged on his recent performances both here and at Huntingdon, while chances are also given to Flaming Charmer and Twenty Eight Guns.

Long Handicap: Monzino 8 - 7

ATR VERDICT: CALIPSO COLLONGES bolted up on his first start for Olly Murphy at Uttoxeter last week (Sackett pulled up) and he should follow up under a 7lb penalty barring accidents. Handicap debutant Drumlee City has shown glimpses of promise and is likely to be closest on hand to take advantage were the selection to slip up, while Sackett can beat Monzino, who runs from 21lb out of the handicap, into third.

ATR VERDICT: PREMIER PORTRAIT had some useful performers behind, including subsequent winner Unioniste, when scoring gamely at Taunton and he will prove difficult to beat with a repeat display. Foxcub arrives on the back of two placed efforts between the flags and warrants plenty of respect on his debut in this sphere, while Pride Of Parish, who has had a wind operation since he was last sighted, also merits consideration.

ATR VERDICT: Melekhov is sure to prove popular following his debut second at Ludlow and rightly so, but ARCH MY BOY shades the verdict with that extra run under his belt. The four-year-old built on his introductory eighth in a Cheltenham Listed event when third at Huntingdon and, open to further improvement, he looks sure to go close under Tom Scudamore. Imperial Knight and Sirobbie make most appeal of the newcomers.
