ATR VERDICT: Mark Johnston's northern raider BRANSCOMBE has shown little of late, but may be worth giving one last chance having been dropped another 5lb by the handicapper and blinkers now tried first-time. Former stablemate W G Grace has cheekpieces on for the first time and could be one to consider for each-way purposes, while Expediate may provide the main opposition now switching to handicap company having been tenderly handled so far.

Top Tip: BRANSCOMBE (1)
Watch out for: EXPEDiate (6)

ATR VERDICT: Godolphin's NIGHT CASTLE was much improved on his second start when running five lengths clear of the opposition to score at Newcastle and the Dubawi gelding, who is a half-brother to Heavy Metal, can confirm that promise here. Sallab can provide stern opposition and the 200,000 guineas purchase, who scored at Epsom last season, is sure to run well on his reappearance. King Tut and Ralph Beckett's well-related newcomer Wind Storm are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: SPARE PARTS has been one of the stories of the all-weather winter season and recorded his seventh win of 2018 when a neck ahead of Poetic Force at Kempton last time. He can open his account over a mile to keep this good run of form going under a 6lb penalty. The tough Poet's Society can never be ruled out and wasn't far away at Chelmsford last time, while Archie Watson continues to find plenty of improvement from Chevallier, who can still be competitive despite the career-high mark.

ATR VERDICT: A MOMENTOFMADNESS has twice won fresh in his career and is likely to be fully revved up for this assignment under William Buick. He finished fourth and sixth in competitive handicaps at York and Doncaster last season and, despite finishing just over a length behind Encore d'Or back in June, looks to be on better terms at the weights this time. The latter is respected after his emphatic win here three weeks ago and rates as the main danger, just ahead of Tomily.

Long Handicap: Swift Fox 8 - 6, Raise A Little Joy 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: INUK continues to run well without winning and perhaps a 1lb drop in the ratings can spark Richard Hughes' charge to an overdue success. The three-year-old returns to the scene of her last success and might prove too pacey for Swift Fox, who ran better than his position of fifth suggests here over a furlong further last time, and Raise A Little Joy, who outran odds of 66-1 last time out and could grab some minor money here.

Top Tip: INUK (3)

ATR VERDICT: ATTAIN ran on well to claim a 11th career success over course and distance last time out and should remain competitive here under talented 7lb claimer Pierre-Louis Jamin. A draw in stall one makes life easier for Archie Watson's charge and he can account for Smiley Bagel, who was well backed but had no response when losing to a 25-1 winner here last month. Shimba Hills returns from a 337-day absence (682 on the Flat) and needs a market check.

Top Tip: ATTAIN (6)

Watch out for: SMILEY BAGEL (3)
