ATR VERDICT: PARK PADDOCKS got off the mark at the fifth attempt over hurdles when winning easily at Cork at the beginning of the month and there appears to be scope for improvement as he makes his handicap debut. Lareena was pulled up when stepped up in trip last time but could bounce back. Others to watch include Philip Kirby's hat-trick seeker Eastview Boy, and Force Of Forces, who should benefit from a drop back in distance.

Top Tip: PARK PADDOCKS (24)

ATR VERDICT: Speredek will ensure a strong gallop and while it is tough to make all in a handicap this competitive, he is tough and has been freshened up after a hard race behind Waiting Patiently at Ascot. Willie Mullins fields a strong team, with novices Bon Papa and Cadmium the pick. The former is well handicapped but has his quirks, while Cadmium warrants respect despite disappointing at Thurles. Three Stars has shaped with promise in two big handicaps this season and should go well again, but the vote goes to SUNSETSTORISE. Gordon Elliott's charge ran well over 2m6f at Fairyhouse last week and the return to 2m is guaranteed to suit.

ATR VERDICT: Bless The Wings ran a fantastic race to be third in the Grand National behind stable companion Tiger Roll but this is a quick turnaround after such a gruelling race at Aintree and he may prove vulnerable to one of the JP McManus battalion. Cantlow was pulled up at Cheltenham and first-time blinkers could see him in a much better light, but this looks the chance for AUVERGNAT to gain his big cross country prize. He was fourth at Cheltenham but this is undoubtedly an easier task and he may have more to offer compared to some of his stablemates.

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins performed a remarkable training feat to get PENHILL to win the Stayers' Hurdle on his first appearance in the best part of a year, and he can only be expected to improve now he has the run under his belt. Bacardys was in the process of running a cracker in the Cheltenham championship event when coming down at the last and adds further strength to a Mullins team that also includes fallen stars Faugheen and Yorkhill. Identity Thief reinvented himself as a three-miler with a clear-cut Aintree triumph and is a big danger, even though this comes soon enough.

ATR VERDICT: Last year's winner Minella Awards returns but he has had only a handful of runs since 2015 and was bitterly disappointing when fancied for the Haydock race won by Sam Spinner in November. Gordon Elliott holds a strong hand, particularly with Pertemps Final runner-up Glenloe and FOLSOM BLUE, who was extremely unlucky not to win the Irish National. The former will need to settle better than he did at Cheltenham so preference is for his stablemate as he looks a reformed character and has form in decent handicap hurdles this season. Ainsí Va La Vie could prove best of the Willie Mullins brigade having had a break since a below-par effort behind Laurina at Fairyhouse in January, Dicey O'reilly and Last Goodbye both have scope for more improvement over timber.

ATR VERDICT: It is impossible to look beyond FOOTPAD, who hammered Petit Mouchoir in the Irish Arkle and Cheltenham equivalent, and although he was forced to miss Aintree due to a slight setback, he should cap an unbeaten novice campaign with a fifth success. Petit Mouchoir is forecast material, although Castlegrace Paddy was really impressive when landing a Listed affair at Thurles and the best is still to come from him.

ATR VERDICT: GLENS HARMONY made a favourable impression as a bumper horse and won nicely on her hurdles debut at Thurles back in October. She has been off the track since but remains open to plenty of improvement. Dawn Shadow was fourth to Laurina at Fairyhouse and will likely find this a much easier assignment than she has faced of late. Moyhenna should appreciate a drop back down in trip having appeared to not fully see out 3m at Fairyhouse.

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins has won three of the last five renewals and saddles six here, the pick of which may be RIO VIVAS. He left a disappointing debut well behind when a very impressive winner at Navan last month, form which has been boosted by the second and third winning since, and this imposing individual has scope for plenty of improvement. Stablemate Castlebawn West also got off the mark at the second attempt in taking fashion and rates the main danger. The biggest threat to the Mullins challenge may come from Fairyhouse winner Dunvegan, who contested a Grade 2 event before a good second over hurdles.

Top Tip: RIO VIVAS (6)

Watch out for: CASTLEBAWN WEST (1)
