ATR VERDICT: Major Jumbo signed off last season with a 6f victory here in September and struck over this trip on his return to action at Newmarket. He's expected to go well on the front end under Nicola Currie, though there is plenty of other speed in the line-up and this could be set up nicely to suit EDWARD LEWIS, who is entitled to come on for his comeback spin at Pontefract latest. El Astronaute ran well from a wide draw at Chester last time and the progressive Sheepscar Lad cannot be left out of calculations either.

Top Tip: EDWARD LEWIS (3)

ATR VERDICT: Coronet very much sets the standard having run well in multiple Group 1 races last season, but over a trip short of her optimum, and on ground probably faster than ideal, it might be worth taking her on with CHAIN OF DAISIES. Henry Candy's mare is currently one from one at the track, she will love forecast rattling quick conditions and signed off last season with an impressive all-the-way Listed win at Newmarket. Turret Rocks is likely to step forward from her comeback effort at Naas.

ATR VERDICT: Roaring Lion improved on his return in the Craven when fifth in the 2000 Guineas behind Saxon Warrior and he should stay the distance on pedigree. That said, the majority of his rivals are unexposed and open to significant improvement which include Crossed Baton, Mildenberger and WELLS FARHH GO. Tim Easterby's colt landed the Acomb Stakes here over 7f last August and is guaranteed to relish the step up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: Larchmont Lad was deemed good enough to contest the 2000 Guineas last year and is respected here on just his fourth start for David O'Meara. Stable companion Custom Cut and Original Choice are also noted, likewise Afaak who has a nice line of form behind Lockinge hopeful Addeybb at Newmarket last September. CAPE BYRON is a fascinating contender, though, representing powerful connections and having had a wind operation following his latest Meydan reverse behind Benbatl. He could be anything.

ATR VERDICT: HEY JONESY was far from disgraced when ridden to get an extra two furlongs at Newmarket last time out and should appreciate the drop back to a sprinting distance. The course winner represents a yard that goes well here and can utilise his pace over this trip. Roussel's second behind Hey Gaman was boosted when the latter filled the runner-up spot in the French Guineas over the weekend, while Declarationofpeace beat Sound And Silence in the Juvenile Turf Sprint in November.

ATR VERDICT: I Am A Dreamer has to be respected given his previous experience but, while he should go well, he may be vulnerable to an above-average newcomer. TRUE BELIEF's full-brother was a decent two-year-old last year and this 95,000-pound purchase makes plenty of appeal given his connections. Burning Lake and Kessaar were both expensive purchases and it would be no surprise to see either go well, while First Thought and Lightning Attack also makes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Graceland was runner-up to Injam in this contest 12 months ago and arrives here a fresher horse on this occasion having run well on her comeback at Kempton. World War has the potential to improve for a switch to Archie Watson's yard with the step up in trip a possible source of improvement, but the vote goes to CHOCOLATE BOX. He looked as good as ever on his return at Chelmsford and fast ground should be right up his street.
