ATR VERDICT: MY LAUREATE comes from a family her trainer Ger Lyons knows particularly well having trained her half-sister, Ainippe, to win on her racecourse debut before she went on to Group 3 success. The daughter of Rajj is expected to make a winning start despite lacking experience like some of her rivals. Coral Beach has placed on all three starts so far but she has been a beaten favourite the last twice, while Sparkle'n'joy can build on her debut effort at the Curragh.

ATR VERDICT: LOVING A BOOM has proven very consistent without getting his head in front, but he shaped on his most recent start at Sligo as though a drop back from 7f would see him off the mark. National Glory took a step forward from his debut when third over this C&D at the end of last month and he is respected, along with Social Butterfly, who shaped well at Navan when finishing fourth over 5f and this step up in trip looks a positive.

ATR VERDICT: ICENI relished a drop back to 5f last time when second but looks versatile enough to cope with this extra furlong for Henry De Bromhead. The three-year-old remains favourably handicapped off 49 and a draw in stall three should allow Conor Hoban to find a nice position for the filly. Handicap debutant Kodi Koh requires a market check for Ger Lyons, while Phoenix Lightning is worth noting on just his second start for Ross O'Sullivan.

ATR VERDICT: MOST GIFTED was deemed good enough to run in the Irish 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh last month and she will appreciate these calmer shores after falling short there. The three-year-old was far from disgraced, finishing seven lengths behind the winner, and has been found a nice opening. Belle Boyd wasn't beaten far at Listed level last time and represents the main danger, just ahead of Surrounding, who wears a first-time tongue-tie.

ATR VERDICT: A 5lb rise for FIT FOR FUNCTION's Listowel victory may not be enough to stop his progress here and the course winner should be on the premises once again. Arbourfield's Gowran victory entitles him to respect here and the consistent performer has to be on the shortlist, while Flawlessly was just a short head away at the Curragh last weekend and has shown plenty of encouraging signs since reverting to turf.

Long Handicap: Smiling Eliza 8 - 2

ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott's SMILING ELIZA looks to follow up her Navan victory from earlier this month from a 6lb higher mark. She was strong at the finish that day and her battling qualities could come to the fore once again as she looks to see off Jim Bolger's recent winner Scoil Naisiunta, who is sure to put up plenty of resistance. Harebell is just 2lb higher than her last winning mark with her rating continuing to fall and she is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: SCHOOLBOY ERROR was only beaten two lengths on his hat-trick bid last time and can get back to winning ways here off the same handicap mark to make amends to supporters who sent the gelding off a joint favourite on that occasion. The consistent Easy Boy looks sure to be on the premises, while Scealai Aonair was a winner over 10 furlongs two starts back and could still have more to give at this trip.
