ATR VERDICT: The way TRUE MASON travelled through the Mill Reef suggested he was a high-class performer, until push came to shove on ground probably softer than ideal when second to Kessaar. The drop back from 6f will prove no issue for Karl Burke's colt and he can gain his first Group success. Sergei Prokofiev has seemingly gone backwards in two starts since Royal Ascot, but could easily bounce back to form dropped in both trip and grade, while the likes of Pocket Dynamo, Poetry, and Well Done Fox all have solid credentials on the form they have achieved so far.

ATR VERDICT: FROSTY has a wonderful pedigree, being a full sister to multiple Group 1 and dual Guineas heroine Winter, and she made a very encouraging beginning to her career with success in a maiden at Dundalk, a rare occurrence for an Aidan O'Brien juvenile. She is likely to take a big step forward from that debut performance and can cement her claims as a leading contender, before heading towards the classics next season. Hidden Message was an impressive winner on her racecourse debut at Yarmouth when quickening up in smart fashion to win by three and three-quarter lengths. She wears a first-time hood and can play a big role, along with Mistress Of Love, who improved from her debut performance at Ayr with a smooth victory at Newcastle last month.

ATR VERDICT: Last year's winner Limato has returned to form, after struggling in the first half of the season, winning in Listed company the last twice here on the July course and at York last month. He is top rated in the field and, if running to his best, would undoubtedly be tough to beat. That said, the level of form in those victories this year doesn't amount to much, and D'BAI arguably brings the strongest recent piece of form to the table. His second in the Park Stakes to Mustashry at Doncaster was backed up by that rival going on to win the Joel Stakes here, and Charlie Appleby's gelding can continue the excellent form of the stable. Mankib and Dancing Star both come into this at the top of their game and cannot be discounted up in class.

ATR VERDICT: The unbeaten ANTONIA DE VEGA has shaped like the step up to a mile would suit in her two career victories over 7f, and the daughter of Lope De Vega is fancied to add a Group 1 success to her already impressive CV. She won cosily on debut and that form has been franked by the reopposing runner-up Zagitova, who is now rated 104 and finished fourth in a Group 1 contest latest. Stablemate Hermosa is the pick of Donnacha O'Brien after her recent Group 3 success, while Pretty Pollyanna wasn't at her best in the Cheveley Park here 13 day ago and should do better this time.

Long Handicap: El Borracho 7 - 6, Blooriedotcom 7 - 5

ATR VERDICT: Ralph Beckett appears to hold a strong hand here with his Bated Breath colt Breath Caught, who is penalised for getting back to winning ways at Kempton last time, and Rock Eagle, who has won two of his four outings in his short career thus far and could improve for a step up from 1m2f. Baritone impressively won a Pontefract maiden last month on his first outing since being gelded and could build on that now moving back into the handicap ranks. However, preference is for ASTRONOMER, who is unbeaten in four since reappearing in August and, despite having to concede weight all round, Aidan O'Brien's Galileo colt can enhance his growing reputation following some taking performances of late.

ATR VERDICT: MARY SOMERVILLE was touched off by a neck over this trip on debut at Kempton and the experience gained that day is unlikely to have been lost on John Gosden's charge, who is taken to strike second time out. Intricate and Rhossili Down are similarly expected to step up on promising debut performances and merit shortlist inclusion, while any money for Godolphin newcomer Firebird Song would be notable.

ATR VERDICT: SCOTTISH JIG confirmed her promise with a handy run behind Sheikha Reika on her first try over this trip, and first try at Listed level, at Yarmouth and the three-year-old is backed to build on that performance here. Chain of Daisies was a disappointing favourite further down the field that day and needs to bounce back, while stronger claims may be held this time by stablemate Queen of Time, who was second best in Listed company over 1m here last month and is considered stepping up in trip. Maid To Remember, wearing first-time cheekpieces, and has some smart performances to her name at this distance, while German raider Akua'rella is an interesting unknown.

Top Tip: SCOTTISH JIG (10)
