ATR VERDICT: DER SPIELER has taken some time to come to himself over the larger obstacles but with some experience under his belt now, the seven-year-old can break his duck. In a competitive event at Leopardstown latest, the gelded son of Singspiel wasn't disgraced back in fourth and this looks a more realistic assignment on paper. Elsewhere, Dantes King has threatened a win and should be closely considered in the build up, while the well-bred Harpsy Cord has the potential to be a useful chaser and should be thereabouts when push comes to shove.

Top Tip: DER SPIELER

Watch out for: DANTES KING

ATR VERDICT: The 164-rated RUBI LIGHT sets a very good standard and is tough to oppose in this Grade 2. The gelded son of Network figures prominently towards the business end of the ante-post market for the Ryanair and the Grade 1 winner was by no means disgraced when a creditable runner-up behind Synchronised in the Lexus Chase last time. Apt Approach is feared most for Willie Mullins and will relish the soft ground under Paul Townend, with The Fonze completing the shortlist. Top Tip: RUBI LIGHT  Watch out for: APT APPROACH

ATR VERDICT: Oscar Dan Dan looked back to his brilliant best when notching over the larger obstacles for the first time at Navan last month but slight preference is for KILFLORA. Philip Fenton's gelding looks feasibly treated off this mark of 119 having displayed renewed promise in novice company recently and, at the forecast prices, he looks the value bet. Uncle Tom Cobley rates pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: KILFLORA

Watch out for: OSCAR DAN DAN

ATR VERDICT: Look no further than Z Aidpour. This doesn't look the greatest renewal of the Red Mills Trial Hurdle, which Dinguib won 12 months ago, and Willie Mullins' gelding will take some stopping. He got the upper hand over the classy mare Voler La Vedette when stepped up in trip here last month and, with Grade 1 winning form over 2m in the book, he is tough to oppose. Kalann and Darwins Fox are expected to fight it out for minor honours.

ATR VERDICT: SHAMAR boasts some useful form on the level in France and Willie Mullins' 125,000 euro recruit is expected to make it a winning debut. Having won on heavy ground at Compiègne in October last year, he should relish the underfoot conditions here and strong market vibes would indicate a big run is expected. Of the others, Around The Clock can build on his Limerick effort, while the well-bred Live At Five is also noteworthy on debut.

ATR VERDICT: If jumping issues have been addressed, Cloughmile has every chance at a price but TABLE MOUNTAIN gets the vote. On his handicap bow latest, the five-year-old son of Milan looked to be off a lenient mark of 102 and, despite finishing a beaten favourite, he suggested that he could break his duck over timber with a promising runner-up effort. Colls Corner is another for the shortlist on the back of his comfortable success at Naas last week.

ATR VERDICT: Busty Brown and Kilcrea have done their claims no harm having placed in similar company at Naas and Limerick respectively but a chance is taken on UNDONE. Nina Carberry boasts a fantastic record in bumpers and Paul Nolan's representative can take plenty from his effort at Punchestown last month when behind several useful sorts including Joxer and Allure Of Illusion. Kayf Tara progeny are renowned for coming on for their efforts first time out and, at the forecast prices, he looks the one to be on.
