TIMEFORM VIEW: Harpsy Cord brings the best chase form to the table, but it could be worth taking a chance that all is well with Ballyadam Brook who stands out like a sore thumb judged on his hurdling exploits in 2010. He is out of a winning chaser and it will look significant if he attracts support in the betting. Dantes King is the pick of the remainder.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Though he has raced over farther in all 3 starts this term, the drop back to 2m is unlikely to inconvenience Zaidpour. He has plenty in hand of these rivals and this should serve as the ideal preperation for a tilt at either the Champion or World Hurdle at next month's Cheltenham Festival. Kalann and Prima Vista can fill the places.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: Around The Clock is entitled to come on for his highly encouraging debut effort in this sphere when runner-up at Limerick. However, Shamar cost current connections a packet and looks a likely type starting out for the Champion trainer, so he gets the nod. Cause of Causes, like Shamar a recruit from the Flat in France, is most interesting of the rest.

In terms of bumper form, Busty Brown and Way Up In The Air appear to be the main dangers but the main threat may be posed by Undone who shaped well in a decent maiden hurdle at Punchestown.
