ATR VERDICT: WATERUNDER made the perfect start to his hurdling career when gamely beating subsequent winner It's A Gimme (that pair pulled 11 lengths clear of the rest) over this C&D last month and, entitled to have learnt a great deal from that experience, he gets the vote to defy a penalty. Mezzanisi was rated as high as 90 in his Flat days for Michael Bell and warrants plenty of respect now sent hurdling, while Chris Down's NH debutant New Christmas is another with claims.

Top Tip: WATERUNDER

ATR VERDICT: It could pay to side with WISHES AND STARS in what looks a tricky puzzle for punters to solve. With just four starts under her belt, there is certainly scope for improvement and she shaped as though stepping up in trip would help when fifth over an extended 2m3f at Taunton last time. Beta Blocker has made the frame on his last couple of starts and should be thereabouts again, while Cocacobana and Thomas Wild make up the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: Alan King has won the last couple of runnings of this race and appears to have another big chance with LOVCEN. Prior to his second-flight fall at Doncaster last month, he had made a big impression when bolting up over 2m5f at Towcester and must go close to winning this purse if he's to take up his engagement in the Albert Bartlett at the Cheltenham Festival. Rolling Aces has displayed a fair level of ability in both NH starts so far rates the biggest threat, while Volador has each-way claims.

ATR VERDICT: Painter Man is sure to have plenty of supporters on his chasing return after decisively winning a hurdle race at Leicester last time, but that form looks fairly suspect and MOUNT OSCAR is preferred. Last season's Racing Post Chase runner-up ran well for a long way on his return in the Peter Marsh at Haydock last month before eventually being pulled up and he is entitled to strip fitter for that first start in 11 months. Atouchbetweenacara hasn't won for a long time but has finally been given a real chance by the handicapper.

ATR VERDICT: HUNT BALL has done little wrong in four starts so far this term (winning all four) and has leading claims from the foot of the weights today. He looked better than ever when scoring over C&D last time (sixth has won since) and a further 9lb rise in the ratings may not be enough to stop this progressive gelding. Marodima will ensure there is a good pace and could make them all pay if given too much rope, while the unexposed Easter Meteor certainly isn't out of it either.

ATR VERDICT:

With Grandouet picking up an injury during the build-up, 2010 Champion Hurdler BINOCULAR has been drafted in to take this prize back to Seven Barrows. Although some way below his brilliant best in the Grade 1 Christmas Hurdle at Kempton last time, he did beat two high-class opponents in Rocky On Ruby and Overturn and looks set to do the business again. Celestial Halo will make it a true test and could hang on to second spot from David Arbuthnot's Starluck.

ATR VERDICT: This purse could go to the in-form ONE MORE DINAR. He arguably stepped up on his Ludlow success two starts ago when runner-up at Warwick last time and another bold bid looks assured despite a further 2lb rise in the handicap. Tim The Chair was marginally behind in that Warwick race (finishing third) and should be hot on his hooves again, while Rateable Value responded positively to the tongue-tie/cheekpieces combination at Fontwell latest and can't be ruled out.

ATR VERDICT: SEVENTH SKY made a promising start to his hurdling career when runner-up at Ffos Las some three weeks ago and, with improvement expected, he could go one better today. Grandioso's third at Chepstow in October looks fairly solid with the first and second both winning since and he ought to mount a bold here, while Moorland Sunset didn't appear to get home over an extended 2m3f at Taunton last time and can be given another chance over this shorter trip.

Top Tip: SEVENTH SKY
