ATR VERDICT: Lightly-raced nine-year-old SECRET WORLD might be worth another chance now his sights are lowered. He ran well in a couple of novice hurdles around this time last year and although pulled up in a hot handicap won by Celestial Halo on his seasonal bow at Newbury in December, he caught the eye performing with credit in a recent 'bumper for jumpers' at Kempton. Leicester runner-up High On A Hill will appreciate the better ground but is almost certainly going to need more of a test, while Hereford second Monte Cavallo may also need further having been more of a stayer on the Flat. Red Inca has also shown enough promise to be of interest.

Top Tip: SECRET WORLD
Watch out for: HIGH ON A HILL
