ATR VERDICT: HASSADIN comes out best on these terms and can take advantage of a return to selling company. Michael Blake's charge landed a race of this nature at Catterick 12 months ago and although well beaten on his two most recent starts, a repeat of his narrow defeat at the hands of Grams And Ounces at Hereford in December could make him the one to beat. Hat-trick seeker King Of Castile must concede plenty of weight all round but he looked in fine fettle when landing a 2m7f handicap at Fontwell last month and appears the obvious threat to the selection. Blue Ronnie is relatively unexposed and could have more to offer having put in a career best at Uttoxeter recently, albeit in moderate company.

Top Tip: HASSADIN
Watch out for: KING OF CASTILE
