Timeform says:
- Fast-progressive handicapper, winning at Yarmouth, York and Newbury on last 3 starts. 5 lb higher than for latest success and, versatile with regards ground, should take all the beating. ★★★★★ (Forecast 3.25)
- Caught eye a few times in handicaps prior to scoring with something to spare at Newbury in July. Off 11 weeks after that and perhaps just wanting for fitness when second at Pontefract last time. ★★★★★★ (Forecast 8.50)
- Usually races in rear (can start slowly) and needs things to fall right, as they did when he came from last to first at Kempton last month. Below that form back on turf next time and others preferred. ★★★★★★ (Forecast 11.00)
- Improved when back on the scoreboard in a hood at Ayr (1¼m) in June and held form reasonably well since, third in classified event at Doncaster recently. Place claims here. ★★★★★★ (Forecast 11.00)
- Off mark for the year on soft ground at Goodwood in June. Seemingly flattered when last of 3 in minor event on penultimate start, and ran poorly in heavy ground at Chester last time. ★★★★★★ (Forecast 9.50)
- On an upward curve, placed twice since returning from a break (gelded) to land a maiden at Carlisle in late-July. Latest run easily excused (went off too hard) and remains with potential. ★★★★★★ (Forecast 6.50)
Jockey Colours: Red, black hoop and armlets, red cap, white star

Timeform says: Missed 2011 but has returned in good form this year, winning a couple of sellers before readily landing handicaps at Leicester and over C&D last month. This better race asks plenty more of him. ★★★☆☆ (Forecast 10.00)

TIMEFORM VIEW: It's unlikely that many will overlook him, but it's still hard not to side with Jawhar in this given the way he's progressing. Commend is another who could still be going the right way and rates next best, ahead of Little Rocky.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: JAWHAR
2: COMMEND
3: LITTLE ROCKY
