TIMEFORM VIEW: In a maiden where none of the runners have experience, the well-bred KELLSTORM looks the way to go for Aiden O'Brien. He is a full-brother to the high-class Order of St George (won Irish St Leger this year), and already has an entry in next year's Epsom Derby, so he must be held in some regard. Mandarin Monarch and Sword Fighter also boast smart pedigrees and need noting in the market.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: CROCODILE ROCK made an encouraging start to his career when seventh in a big-field maiden at the Curragh in September 2014, and though his absence since (coupled with the application of a tongue tie) sounds a note of caution, he is still likely the one to beat. Tsundoku and Give Battle are much more exposed, but should be thereabouts.
