ATR VERDICT: Capeland's bumper form has not worked out all that well but he confirmed himself as one to follow with a respectable third on his hurdles debut at Chepstow a couple of weeks ago. That said, the preference is for STARVING MARVIN, who won a decent novice event at Sandown back in March and if he runs up to his mark of 123 the son of Hawk Wing should be in the mix this afternoon. Quarenta is another whose bumper win does not look to be the suggest of form but he is open to plenty of improvement.

Top Tip: STARVING MARVIN

Watch out for: CAPELAND

ATR VERDICT: A 9lb rise for winning a mediocre event at Fontwell in August makes life a lot tougher for Brave Encounter but the fact that he was won recently is an obvious bonus in this race. GENEROUS CHIEF finished second in a decent event over hurdles at the same Sussex track on his most recent start and this in-form eight-year-old looks the one to beat as he tries to exploit at 10lb lower mark over fences. Bennys Girl remains relatively unexposed over this kind of trip under Rules.

Top Tip: GENEROUS CHIEF

ATR VERDICT: Peter The Mayo Man may not have beaten much in his two wins last month but he has looked to have a bright future ahead of him on both occasions. An opening mark of 125 appears to be workable, especially in a race of this nature. That said, NACHI FALLS gets a big weight allowance from the six-year-old and he arrives here 6lb well-in as his mark has been reassessed as the second and third from his latest win have both won since. Verni and Wolftrap also make some appeal but may struggle against their race-fit rivals.

ATR VERDICT: EXPEDITE was below par on his last couple of starts last season when pulled up at Ascot and Fakenham, but he appeals as the type to have improved significantly for a summer break and for the switch from Charlie Mann to Ben Pauling. Jonagold is a player on his recent effort over C&D when runner-up behind Ballinure, while Midnight Sapphire, Celtic Tune, and Fair To Middleing all have solid claims.

Long Handicap: No No Cardinal 9 - 11

ATR VERDICT: A trappy contest with the whole field all having something to hold against them but the tentative vote goes to THE YANK, who was travelling well when falling at the second last at Fontwell two starts ago before returning at Hereford when third behind Little Pop. David Bridgwater's charge was dropped 4lb for that effort and is now on the same mark he was when running at Fontwell. Cape Caster would be a threat if jumping better than he did at Worcester, while No No Cardinal ran well enough at Southwell when returning to fences and looks best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: ARAMADYH got off the mark over hurdles when winning comfortably at the expense of Moulin Rouge, who reopposes, by six lengths and an 8lb rise in the weights shouldn't be enough to stop Jimmy Frost's charge. Moulin Rouge looks a danger with the drop in distance likely to work more in her favour but she still has something to find, while Breeze Along could well improve for his first start in handicap company.

Top Tip: ARAMADYH

Watch out for: MOULIN ROUGE
