ATR VERDICT: Apart from Avithos, who has plenty to find on figures, this looks a competitive even on paper with the rest of the field all holding solid claims in their own right. Happy Diva sets the standard on form having finished fourth to Constantine Bay over C&D in a Grade 2 in January before finding the smart Colin's Sister too strong when dropped back in trip at Sandown last time. The return to 3m is a positive but a chance can be taken with LASTBUTNOTLEAST, a mare who is unbeaten in two outings over hurdles and showed a fantastic attitude at Carlisle when seeing off Which One Is Which. Taws was arguably flattered when second behind Finian's Oscar at Exeter but should benefit for the extra mile, while Braventara and Naranja both cannot be discounted having both shown ability to date.

Top Tip: LASTBUTNOTLEAST

Watch out for: HAPPY DIVA
