ATR VERDICT: ICARIO sets a clear standard on his three runner-up efforts and he should have few problems justifying forecast skinny odds. Stacks Mountain is certainly bred to have plenty of ability, being a half-brother to high-class bumper/hurdles winner Battleford, and could pose the biggest danger on his racecourse debut, while A Year To Remember is expected to improve for the switch to handicap company.

Top Tip: ICARIO

Watch out for: STACKS MOUNTAIN

ATR VERDICT: Ardean Lass is of interest on her NH debut after recently bolting up between the flags, but it's difficult to get away from BARGY LADY. She has done very little wrong in five starts thus far and wouldn't need to improve a great deal, if at all, to open her hurdling account. Not A Whisper, who wears a first-time hood, only has five-and-a-quarter lengths to find with the selection on their Leopardstown clash in January and also has place credentials.

Top Tip: BARGY LADY

Watch out for: ARDEAN LASS

ATR VERDICT: Close Shave hasn't been disgraced in maiden hurdles behind the likes of Monalee and Battleford and it would come as no surprise to see him go close on his handicap debut, but CAMLANN looks the slightly safer option. Recent win and placed efforts show him to be arriving at the top of his game and he can go close again, despite a further 2lb rise. From further down the weights, Crehelp could go well at a price.

Top Tip: CAMLANN
Watch out for: CLOSE SHAVE

ATR VERDICT: KINGS BANDIT was just six and three-quarter lengths behind the 143-rated Starchitect off level terms in a novice chase at Ayr last time and, with the two horses either side of him both winning since, that rates rock solid form. He remains open to plenty of improvement with just four chase starts under his belt and should win readily barring accidents. The rest have been struggling for form of late but it could be left to Cloudy Morning and Dr Waluigi to fight out minor honours.

Top Tip: KINGS BANDIT

ATR VERDICT: ALL THE CHIMNEYS went down by a neck over a similar trip at Clonmel last time out and is expected to remain competitive following a 3lb rise. Show And Go knuckled down well to score over 2m at Punchestown last time and has place possibilities off 4lb higher, while Ontopoftheworld, who was second to the selection over C&D in January, is unlikely to be far away at the finish either.

ATR VERDICT: TEXAS JACK improved for the step up to 3m1f when scoring with ease at Fairyhouse last month and rates the one to beat in his current mood as he bids to defy a 5lb rise. Folsom Blue has dropped back down to his last winning mark and bids to snap a losing run dating back to 2014. A bigger danger to the selection may be Canaly, who struck over a similar trip at Punchestown in January and drops in grade after finishing sixth in the Grand National Trial at the same venue latest.

ATR VERDICT: COEUR DE BEAUCHENE changed hands for 115,000 pounds after finishing second between the flags in November and is interesting now debuting for powerful connections under Rules. Laverteen, who represents the same owner as the selection, makes some appeal on his debut second over 2m at Fairyhouse and can battle it out with Balkalin, who arguably sets the standard on his Limerick third last spring, for the minor honours.
