ATR VERDICT: Lexington Grace has shaped well in three starts to date but he is beginning to look a little exposed now and looks worth taking on with the once-raced SIENNA SAYS. Tony Carroll isn't usually noted for his juvenile winners but his Bated Breath filly made a debut full of promise when finishing sixth in a warm novice event at Leicester last month. She should have learnt plenty from that, while another with the potential to keep improving is Pontefract fifth Paco Bleue.

Top Tip: SIENNA SAYS

Watch out for: LEXINGTON GRACE

ATR VERDICT: Dyllan ended last season in really good form and the booking of Silvestre De Sousa for his return to action would suggest connections are expecting a big run. Irish import Candelaria is another interesting proposition and he looks worth monitoring in the betting, while the consistent Penny Dreadful ought to give her running again. However, it might be worth giving another chance to ONE BOY, who got bogged down in soft ground last time but had shown plenty in faster conditions earlier in the season.

Top Tip: ONE BOY

ATR VERDICT: MIDNIGHT MALIBU bounced back to her best form when chasing home the progressive Longroom at Musselburgh and that form gives her strong claims off the same mark this evening. Lydia's Place comes into this in winning form following her cosy Redcar success, her second in her last three starts, while Rose Berry is another in-form performer who seems sure to have plenty of supporters. Similarly, Socialites Red warrants the utmost respect having scored over 6f here last time.

ATR VERDICT: Rotherwick didn't have much to beat last time but he is usually thereabouts at this level and should at least give WORLDS HIS OYSTER something to think about. The latter went into a few notebooks when finishing well for third at Chester last month and he is hard to ignore while he is so well handicapped at present. High Baroque still flatters to deceive but it wouldn't be the greatest surprise to see him go close.

Long Handicap: Pyroclastic 8 - 1, Tom's Anna 8 - 1, The King's Steed 8 - 1, Zaytoon 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: INDIGO PRINCESS probably wasn't suited by the small field when turned over at Leicester but a larger field suited her much better when winning over this C&D on her previous start. A return to that level form would make her hard to beat. Whitkirk has shown up well in two starts so far this season and his winning turn shouldn't be far away, while another to consider might be Magic Mirror following a good run last time.

Top Tip: INDIGO PRINCESS

ATR VERDICT: LUGANO is a handicapper on the upgrade and made three wins on the bounce when streaking clear at Haydock last week. He races off only a 2lb higher mark tonight and like so many hailing from the Sir Mark Prescott stable, expect further improvement still now he gets a stiffer test of stamina to tackle. The others might be playing for place money with Tyrell and Perfect Summer the obvious threats.

Top Tip: LUGANO

Watch out for: TYRELL
