Long Handicap: Flying Author 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: HOPE IS HIGH won with plenty in hand at Yarmouth and has to be considered turned out quickly under a penalty. John Berry's filly was having his third run of the season there and may have just clicked into top gear. Powered was a close fourth at Bath last time, but doesn't find winning easy, so a bigger danger could be Marshall Aid, who is consistent enough to get involved and has slipped to an attractive mark.

Top Tip: HOPE IS HIGH
Watch out for: MARSHALL AID

ATR VERDICT: A competitive heat that could go the way of GOTTI. Jeremy Nosedá's colt failed to load on his aborted debut, but was much better behaved at Brighton and kept on well despite taking a while to warm to the task. That experience won't be lost on him and he can get the better of Demons Rock, who has improved with each run so far and was beaten less than a length at Leicester latest. Expecting could come on for his debut over 6f here, while Indian Warrior ran a cracker over C&D latest.

Top Tip: GOTTI
Watch out for: DEMONS ROCK

ATR VERDICT: Just a neck separated QUICK SKIPS LAD (second) from Tie Em Up Tel (third) in a seller at Goodwood last time and the former in particular won't lack for experience here, having been on the go since the opening day of the season. Shovel It On could improve for the return to turf after struggling somewhat at Wolverhampton, while Bumble Beeze is likely to improve for his first taste of racecourse action at Dunstall Park.

Top Tip: QUICK SKIPS LAD
Watch out for: TIE EM UP TEL

ATR VERDICT: Bahamian Dollar followed up a second-placed finish here with an agonising short head defeat at Salisbury last time and the handicapper may have taken a chance in leaving him on the same mark, while Whitecrest's winning run came to an abrupt end at Lingfield last time and she is actually 1lb higher here. Pretty Bubbles and Cool Bahamian have both slipped to feasible ratings, but preference is for KING OF SPIN, who won nicely over C&D two starts ago, was not disgraced here last time and is 1lb lower than for the latest of those runs.

Top Tip: KING OF SPIN
Watch out for: BAHAMIAN DOLLAR

ATR VERDICT: VENUTIUS signed off last season, and his time with Ed McMahon, with a narrow victory at Ripon and though his first run for Charlie Hills ended in defeat on soft ground, it will have blown away the cobwebs and could set him up for a big run here. After a series of failures in Ireland for David Wachman, Fit For The Job was sent off favourite on his debut for Jonjo O'Neill, though that ended in another defeat. He could be better than that, though, so is respected, along with Leicester winner Manton Grange and Windsor regular Shifting Star.

Top Tip: VENUTIUS
Watch out for: FIT FOR THE JOB

10 (5)		44	MARIE JOSEPHE 30 b f Cape Cross - Maria Letizia	3 8 - 11	S W Kelly Richard Hughes	-

ATR VERDICT: PREROGATIVE might not get a more winnable opportunity than this. Richard Hannon's charge has filled the runner-up spot in three of his last four starts and showed he stays this far when attempting to make all at Chepstow last time. Marie Josephe ran a cracker on debut over C&D but struggled over further at Newmarket last time, so Percy B Shelley looks the biggest danger after shaping well enough on his Wolverhampton debut in December.

Top Tip: PREROGATIVE
Watch out for: PERCY B SHELLEY

ATR VERDICT: IT'S HOW WE ROLL was beaten less than two lengths into fourth over a mile here last time, doing all his best work at the finish, so off the same mark and up in trip he could take some beating here. Settle Petal has been campaigned exclusively on the all-weather so far but has claims if transferring her form to turf, while Prosecution made a pleasing reappearance at Leicester and looks capable of making an impact here.

Top Tip: IT'S HOW WE ROLL
Watch out for: PROSECUTION
