ATR VERDICT: Course winner YES YOU has been in grand form of late and gets the vote running from 1lb lower than when not disgraced in fifth here last time out. Top-weight Desperados Destiny caught the eye at Newcastle and should figure in this grade, while Chepstow winner Passionatta is another for the shortlist. Knockamany Bends, a winner over this trip at Hamilton before running well for second back subsequently, flopped at Musselburgh on Saturday but should be happier around this stiffer track and cannot be discounted if taking his chance.

Top Tip: YES YOU (2)

ATR VERDICT: QUOTELINE DIRECT looked to be crying out for this step up in trip when finishing a close-up fourth over 1m1f here last month and the in-form P J McDonald looks an ideal booking for this son of Sir Percy. Expect another bold showing from the ultra-consistent Paddy's Rock, but the selection might have more to fear from Colour Contrast who has dropped to a really good mark now and shaped well the last twice.

ATR VERDICT: Melanna was a beaten favourite at Newmarket last time but might have better to offer here, while Toola Boola comes into this on the back of a good run over hurdles last time and merits plenty of respect. However, SAKHALIN STAR might prove the most solid option have been in excellent form of late, winning at Beverley three starts back before turning in a couple of solid efforts in two subsequent outings.

ATR VERDICT: BOOK OF DREAMS proved no match for the impressive Alfa McGuire at Beverley but still ran really well in defeat that day and looked a talented performer when making a winning debut at Nottingham previously. He should have have plenty more to offer and is taken to regain the winning thread, possibly at the main expense of Spray The Sea, who took another step forward when second at Musselburgh last time. Richard Fahey's newcomer Ocean Voyage is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: POWERFUL SOCIETY doesn't look too badly treated making her handicap debut off an opening mark of 69. Richard Fahey's charge was a decent third at Epsom last time having shaped really well at Nottingham previously and there should be races to be won with this one. Elysee Star has yet to finish out of the money in her three career starts so expect her to be in there pitching again, while Claramara is surely better than shown at Musselburgh last time.

ATR VERDICT: Plenty of give in the ground appears to suit Flyboy and it would come as no surprise to see him return to form, with similar sentiments apply to Tadaawol who dotted up at Catterick only four starts back. Specialv is an interesting runner back at 7f but REDARNA might be the one to plump for having been in such good form of late, including when third on similar ground over this C&D last time.

ATR VERDICT: There will be plenty of interest around Irish raider For The Roses who is shipped over by Johnny Murtagh. She could go very well but LEWINSKY boasts stronger form credentials having finished second on her Chelmsford debut before turning in solid displays in two subsequent outings. Hugo Palmer is always to be respected when venturing north from his Newmarket base and this represents a decent opening for his charge. Relevant looks moderate but might fare best of the rest.

ATR VERDICT: There should be races to be won with Haroon who has finished second in a pair of maidens the last twice. Parole was a winner here two starts ago and makes plenty of appeal given his strong recent form though slight preference is for HAGUE CONVENTION. The selection took a big step forward when only finding one too strong at Bellewstown last month and he can ensure the trip across from Ireland is a worthwhile one for connections.
