TIMEFORM VIEW: MARIA'S BENEFIT made an encouraging start over hurdles at Worcester last month, and her experience can see her come home in front here with the prospect of improvement on the cards. All her rivals are interesting having their first runs over jumps, Darling Maltaix perhaps the pick of them ahead of Al Shahir.

TIMEFORM VIEW: DIEGO DU CHARMIL may only have had a stablemate to beat on his debut over fences here last month but he went about things in good style and is expected to make up into one of the leading novice chasers this season. Space Oddity is the other runner with experience in this sphere having won impressively at Uttoxeter when last seen, and he's the chief danger as things stand.

TIMEFORM VIEW: MAID OF MILAN has not run for nearly a year, but she's a straightforward type who looks sure to give her running tackling the larger obstacles for the first time, so earns the narrow vote. Bramble Brook remains feasibly treated and would be a big player if turning up in similar form, while it all clicked into place for Doitforioe at Plumpton last month and he completes the shortlist.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: It's taken BRIANSTORM a while to make it to the track under Rules following his point win in April 2016, but he represents an excellent bumper yard, so he's bound to be well prepared for this. River Bray sets a solid if unspectacular standard on his fourth-placed effort at Kempton, while Crooks Peak and Timeforben are likely types on paper.

Timeform 1-2-3:
1: BRIANSTORM (1)
2: RIVER BRAY (3)
3: CROOKS PEAK (2)
