ATR VERDICT: SOUND AND SILENCE has had a highly productive two-year-old campaign and arguably produced a career best effort on his latest start in a Group 3 contest at Maisons-Laffitte. Charlie Appleby has enjoyed a fantastic spell with his juveniles throughout 2017 and this looks another opportunity to continue their consistent form. Abel Handy finished runner-up behind the selection at York's Ebor meeting in a Listed event and has to enter calculations, along with Battle Of Jericho, who could well improve for a drop back in trip. Ripon maiden winner Mokaatil is another to note.

ATR VERDICT: Gavota was an eye-catcher despite losing her unbeaten record over C&D in the Rockfel when third behind Juliet Capulet having looked uneasy on the undulations of the track. Better ground and the experience gained last time could easily both prove the deciding factors between victory and defeat. Dark Rose Angel was just denied in the final strides by Laurens in the May Hill at Doncaster and the booking of Frankie Dettori looks a positive to her chances, but she will need to be on her A game to stop I CAN FLY. Aidan O'Brien's runners tend to improve plenty for their debut runs and the daughter of Fastnet Rock won impressively at Dundalk first time out a fortnight ago. Others at bigger prices to consider include Listed winner Anna Nerium and Altyn Orda, who was beaten by a subsequent Listed winner in a C&D maiden last time.

Top Tip: I CAN FLY (11)

ATR VERDICT: It can be argued that LIMATO has not been at his very best this year but he has still placed in two Group 1 sprints. He was only beaten by half-a-length in the Lennox Stakes last time and will be tough to beat if the ground stays good or better. Massaate returned from a lengthy break to land the Hungerford at Newbury and he was not disgraced behind Ribchester in the Prix du Moulin last month. Dabyah is unbeaten over 7f but does have to prove herself against the boys, while Cougar Mountain is not a prolific winner but holds each-way claims.

ATR VERDICT: Aidan O'Brien has won the last three renewals of this race and there is every chance that this event goes his way as well. HAPPILY is the pick of Ryan Moore having beaten the colts in Jean-Luc Lagardere last time and this galloping mile should help her cause. Magical beat the selection in August and was a short-head behind her in the Moyglare, but she was slightly disappointing in the Marcel Boussac earlier this month. September is another Ballydoyle representative to note but the Chesham winner has ground to find with her stablemates. Laurens is the pick of the home team based on her May Hill victory while recent course maiden winner Magic Lily has plenty of potential.

Long Handicap: Medalla De Oro 7 - 13

ATR VERDICT: This looks to have been the plan for quite some time for Torcello, who carries a penalty after his course and distance demolition job 15 days ago. The three-year-old has plenty of scope for progress but looks likely to be short enough in the betting and it might be worth chancing HERE AND NOW, who was an impressive third in the Melrose at York when last seen. A winner against St Leger third Stradivarius at Chester earlier this season, Ralph Beckett's charge could still be fairly handicapped off 91 and has a nice profile for a contest such as this. Intrepidly blew his chance at the start last time out and remains open to improvement now under Frankie Dettori, while High End is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Angel's Glory is a 300,000gns daughter of Invincible Spirit who is entitled to have come on markedly for her promising debut third at Haydock, with a step up from 6f no surprise after that fast-finishing effort. John Gosden landed this prize last year with a newcomer and 870,000gns yearling GUMRIYAH could do the same. A half-sister to 1,000 Guineas winner Legatissimo, the two-year-old is fancied to know her job first time out, and account for the once-raced pair of Final Treat, who is bred to win plenty of races, and Veracious, who should have learnt plenty from her first run at Newbury.

ATR VERDICT: Uae Queen was strong in the closing stages when landing the spoils at Sandown last time and this step up in distance can only be of benefit to Roger Varian's filly. Natavia was deemed good enough to run in the Oaks on just her third career start in June and wears a first-time tongue-tie here following a break since that outing, while the once-raced Crimson Rock also returns after a lengthy absence. High Hopes shaped last time as though a return to 12 furlongs was needed and the door could be open for ARCHITECTURE to land the spoils. Second in the 2016 Oaks and fourth on reappearance last month, that effort is entitled to have brought her on plenty and this looks like a nice opening for her to claim a first win in almost two years.

Top Tip: ARCHITECTURE (1)
