ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls deserves plenty of respect with runners in this sphere given that he is 4-15 with bumper horses at this track in the last five years, and his RINGA DING DING could enhance that record. The son of Shirocco is a half-brother and son to bumper winners (dams side) and could have too much class for this opposition on debut. Court Out has switched stables since debut and merits a market check for Jamie Snowden, while Represented is with a handler who does have winners in such contests and the booking of Richard Johnson is noteworthy.

Top Tip: RINGA DING DING (8)

Watch out for: REPRESENTED (7)
