ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls and Colin Tizzard do battle with a pair of chasing rookies. The Ditchat candidate gets the nod here, with RIDGEWAY FLYER going into plenty of notebooks when staying on well to pounce late at Plumpton and the step up in trip is only set to suit. Never Learn only got as far as the second on his fencing bow, but is more than capable of providing a stern test here if his confidence is non the worse for that Wincanton tumble.

He looks to be plenty of talent and it would be no surprise should he make a pleasing switch to the hurdling scene. Darling Maltaix produced his best performance on these shores when third here last time and the step up in trip could be in his favour, while Contented made a pleasing debut for Philip Hobbs when third at Wincanton, the stable is in form and improvement could be forthcoming.

ATR VERDICT: Recent winners Walter Oneeightone and Panis Angelicus have to be considered once again, however, both have plenty more on their plate this time having been handed hikes in the weights. Therefore, it may be best to side with Graeme McPherson's RED ADMIRABLE, who remains on the same mark he was second off at Uttoxeter last time. The ground turned slightly against him that day so it was a good performance to be only five lengths adrift at the finish and he can be seen to much better effect now on a sounder surface. On Alberts Head often flatters to deceive, however, he is another to consider if able to put it all together.

Top Tip: RED ADMIRABLE (9)

ATR VERDICT: OSCAR'S SONG was given too much to do when second in an amateur riders' contest at Ludlow last time and can gain compensation here if ridden a little closer to the pace under Bridget Andrews, who takes over in the saddle. Canicallyouback has seen the form of his Stratford third franked by both the winner and the runner-up and a slight break could have him fresh and well for this. New Millennium and Lexington Law are two others from respected yards who are also considered.

ATR VERDICT: Midnight Gypsy has been raised 5lb following her recent course and distance victory and she needs to defy a career-high mark now to go close here. Therefore, preference is for PEGGIES VENTURE, who travelled best of all when second at Worcester and could be seen to just as good effect here with an extra three furlongs to tackle. Lady Of Longstone has knocked on the door of late, though that was over further than this and she could find the tight turns of this track difficult to cope with.

ATR VERDICT: RESOLUTION BAY probably hasn't won as much as connections would have hoped in his short career so far, but he has always been bred to make into a decent chaser and performed admirably on his debut over fences when second at Plumpton last month. This step up in distance should suit the five-year-old and he can get the better of Monsieur Co, who scoped dirty when last seen in February at Warwick, and Princeton Royale, who wouldn't be far away on the best of his form.

ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls deserves plenty of respect with runners in this sphere given that he is 4-15 with bumper horses at this track in the last five years, and his RINGA DING DING could enhance that record. The son of Shirocco is a half-brother and son to bumper winners (dams side) and could have too much class for this opposition on debut. Court Out has switched stables since debut and merits a market check for Jamie Snowden, while Represented is with a handler who does have winners in such contests and the booking of Richard Johnson is noteworthy.
