ATR VERDICT: THE BRITISH LION improved for the switch to the all-weather at the back end of last year and Mark Johnston's colt is sure to have plenty more up his sleeve as he makes the jump into handicap company now. Hard Graft landed the spoils at Southwell last time but has an extra 7lb to shoulder now, while Swissal must be considered having not been out of the top two on his last three outings.

ATR VERDICT: PROGRESSIVE JAZZ has been kept busy on the all-weather of late and the Red Jazz gelding can leave his latest effort behind and return to his consistent best here. He can land this open contest ahead of Freebe Rocks, who despite being a valid alternative looks to have plenty on his plate racing from the top of the handicap. Jamie Osborne saddles two with solid claims in Dashing Dusty and Trick Shot Jenny, who still remains feasibly treated just 2lb higher than when last winning.

ATR VERDICT: DIAGNOSTIC has not been out of the top two on all four of her starts and the Dutch Art filly arrives here unbeaten in three as she looks to keep her winning run going. The return to seven furlongs should hold no issues and the Cheveley Park four-year-old can account for Marco Botti's Raven's Lady at the finish, with that rival needing to bounce back to the form she showed last summer. Summer Icon ran with credit throughout 2017 and she's another to note.

ATR VERDICT: Roger Charlton's BREATHLESS TIMES knocked on the door at Kempton on his racecourse debut and the Bated Breath colt can go one better here having kept to his task well that day showing plenty of promise. Newcomers Wide Acclaim and Daze Out are worth a market check, however, the main danger looks to be Kingofmerrows, who possesses a wealth of experience and is used to getting involved at the business end.

ATR VERDICT: BILLYOAKES won at Lingfield two starts ago and he was beaten by less than two lengths at the same venue on New Year's Eve. Pulsating has run well in all three starts since joining this yard and she should be in the mix once again. Jack Blane was successful over C&D last time out and has an obvious chance from just 2lb higher in the ratings.

Long Handicap: Whispering Soul 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Hisar is likely to be popular after scoring over this C&D last time out and should have his say again, but that was his first success from 17 attempts and he is far from certain to back that up off a 4lb higher mark. Preference is for BOBBY VEE, who returned from a layoff with a very encouraging fourth at Lingfield last month, when doing well to get within a length and three-quarters of the winner from off the pace, and she should strip fitter. Pushkin Museum continues to tumble down the ratings and could be ready to pounce soon.

Long Handicap: Sword of The Lord 8 - 4

ATR VERDICT: Valitop was considered good enough for a crack at Listed company when last seen in October 2015 and it seems notable that connections have persisted with keeping him in training as he returns from an 817-day absence. Tangramm is respected on his recent Chelmsford success but a chance is taken with INFLUENT as she shaped with promise last time over C&D and first-time cheekpieces may just do the trick to eke out further improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Widnes will undoubtedly prove popular with punters once again after his second at Lingfield just before Christmas but may have to settle for the minor honours behind the consistent TIS WONDERFUL. The selection ran another sound race when when second over this C&D last time and his turn shouldn't be far away. Acker Bilk looks open to further progression on just his fifth outing.
