ATR VERDICT: Band Of Blood was a very easy winner of a veterans' contest at Exeter having had almost two years off the track so the main concern is the quick turnaround with the potential for him to bounce after such a big effort. Indian Castle should prove a lot happier dropped back down to 3m and is on a fair mark considering his form this season. Killala Quay is 4lb lower than his last win in this contest 12 months ago but a chance is taken with top weight CAROLE'S DESTRIER. He is yet to fire this season but he will appreciate a sounder surface compared to what he encountered at Haydock last time and this looks the easiest assignment he has faced in a while.

Top Tip: CAROLE'S DESTRIER (1)

Watch out for: INDIAN CASTLE (8)
