ATR VERDICT: BLU CAVALIER has won his last couple of starts by an aggregate total of 34 lengths, the latest coming under today's amateur jockey at Taunton, and he will take some stopping in his bid to round off the hat-trick. Something was likely amiss with Ballyknock Cloud when pulling up on his latest outing in December and he can be give another chance following a layoff, while El Presente and Malachite are others to keep an eye on.

Top Tip: BLU CAVALIER (1)

ATR VERDICT: It might pay to side with the top-rated GARO DE JUILLEY in what looks a tricky puzzle for punters to solve. He hasn't done a great deal wrong in three starts so far this season, rewarding each-way support on each occasion, and stepping up in trip could potentially unlock the improvement required for him to regain the winning thread. From the opposite end of the weights, Ballycoe is of interest back over hurdles, while The Sweeney, Little Miss Poet and Oscars Leader also merit consideration.

ATR VERDICT: THE LAST BUT ONE may well have won his last four races had he not tumbled at Sandown two runs ago and, after bouncing back in fine style over the extended 1m7f here latest, he is firmly the one to beat. Amber Gambler rates the biggest threat following his determined Haydock success, while Wilberdragon bolted up over C&D in late October and has talented conditional Paul O'Brien back on board for the first time since.

Long Handicap: Kastani Beach 10 - 2

ATR VERDICT: The likeable Guy Disney has picked up a handy ride on handicap debutant Clash Of D Titans, who has placed on both hurdle starts thus far, while Mortens Leam is an interesting player switching back from fences off 12lb lower than when runner-up at Fakenham last time. The one to beat, however, looks to be VOLPONE JELOIS. The talented dual-purpose performer readily won his latest NH start in a "jumpers' bumper" at Kempton last month and reverts back to hurdles with top amateur Jody Sole booked to ride.

ATR VERDICT: Irish Prophecy is a lot better than the bare result reflects at Kempton last time, where still in touch when badly hampered three-out, and he should be given another chance on his return from a 117-day break, but DIAMOND GUY gets the nod in what could potentially be a red letter day for Paul Nicholls. The Ditcheat handler has saddled smart winners of this race the last two years and today's runner looks no different, having won a bumper at this venue last season before returning with a solid runner-up finish in a "jumpers' bumper" at Kempton seven weeks ago. Class-dropper Shoal Bay also warrants respect.

Long Handicap: What Larks 9 - 8

ATR VERDICT: GUERRILLA TACTICS was still in the mix when falling during his hat-trick bid here last time out and has proven form on drying ground having won twice on it last autumn for Jeremy Scott and Nick Schofield. Veteran Shanann Star isn't open to much improvement but does like it here and shouldn't be far away, while Bears Rails and Water Wagtail both have points to prove. Moorlands George needs a betting check after a 529-day absence.

ATR VERDICT: Tidal Flow won an above-average bumper at Newbury last time out, though he has to give 7lb and upwards to this field and recent stable form is a concern for the five-year-old. Zyon has the right sort of profile for this event and is likely to be supported in the betting, while Bold Plan cost connections 195,000 pounds after a runaway win between the flags earlier this year. Alan King is 2-6 in this sphere since 2013 at this track and NEWTOWN BOY looks poised to go well given that he is a half-brother to two past bumper winners.

ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls won both divisions of this event with smart types Capitaine and Movewiththetimes in 2016 and the well-bred Saint De Reve merits plenty of respect in this company for the Ditchheat maestro. Larkbarrow Lad was third in a hot Kempton bumper last time and could put that experience to good use, but the claims of DARLAC are more appealing. The selection was second behind the smart Gowiththeflow in a point-to-point last May and it is worth noting that Colin Tizzard won this with subsequent World Hurdle winner Thistlecrack back in 2014.
