ATR VERDICT: A chance is taken on PARKERS HILL, who has just a head to find with North Wind on their distance clash at Naas in early May and is open to greater improvement. National Guard had the latter over two lengths behind when fourth and seventh respectively in a Curragh maiden 18 days ago and should have the measure of his stablemate again, while the remaining trio all look up against it.

ATR VERDICT: Quinns Red Rose and Tough Spirit weren't split by much when third and sixth respectively in a Gowran maiden last month and that pair both warrant respect, while Proud And Elated and Mnemonic Alexander are others to note. However, the experienced runners don't set the bar overly high so it might pay to side with Dermot Weld's newcomer RAMBLING. She is certainly bred to have plenty of ability, being a half-sister to five winners, and will know her job on debut.

Top Tip: RAMBLING (12)

ATR VERDICT: True Valour has posted two solid efforts in Group 3 company already this year and makes plenty of appeal with first-time cheekpieces equipped, while Ardhoomey merits consideration dropping down a level. The most interesting runner by far, however, and receiving the vote, is Aidan O'Brien's US import ST PATRICK'S DAY. The form of September's Del Mar success is rock-solid with the runner-up since fourth in the 144th Kentucky Derby and he can land this prize before going onto bigger and better things.

ATR VERDICT: BUCKY LARSON has been brought along steadily by Ger Lyons and he got off the mark over C&D at the third time of asking when looking to appreciate a more patient ride. An opening mark of 83 looks workable and he remains open to further improvement. Rapture's Delight benefited from a drop in trip last time when winning at Gowran and should have no issue returning to a mile, while Editorial can prove better than what he showed last time behind London Icon at Navan.

ATR VERDICT: WATERBOY won in the style of a well handicapped horse when bolting up here over a mile at the end of last month and shaping on that occasion as though a step up to 1m2f would pose no problems. He is 7lb higher as a result but he has the potential to keep on improving. Claregate Street arrives having shown decent form on her recent outings and is respected once again, while Casla might have more to offer having shaped encouragingly on her first start for new connections over C&D last time.

ATR VERDICT: REMMY D steps up in trip following his Curragh victory last week over 1m4f and the Lawman gelding is backed to follow up under a 6lb penalty which leaves him 2lb well-in at the weights. Ross O'Sullivan's consistent gelding Universal Focus wasn't beaten far here over two furlongs shorter on his return to the turf last time and the Dundalk winner must be considered, while Siempre Amigos made a raiding mission to Southwell count in May and has to be respected here from a 6lb higher mark.

Great Trango is a consistent performer who has made the podium on all three outings on the Flat this year, with Ask Susan interesting having scored over fences earlier this month.
