ATR VERDICT: Grams And Ounces won this off 3lb higher last year and the course and distance winner shouldn't be far away at the business end, while New Street should appreciate this slightly stiffer test after looking one-paced at Lingfield last time out. The most likely winner looks to be LET'S SWAY, who has been running very well over hurdles of late and has been found a nice opening to score back on the Flat for the first time in 357 days.

Top Tip: LET'S SWAY (7)

ATR VERDICT: GENERAL BROOK won readily when reverting to turf at Lingfield last time out and a 4lb rise in the weights seems fair. The eight-year-old can hardly be described as unexposed, but a mark of 53 looks within his reach and he can account for Howardian Hills. He performed much better last time but is winless since July last year, while Travis Bickle is nicely drawn in stall one but still needs to step up.

ATR VERDICT: Queen Of Desire ran well for a long way here last time out and is noted, while L'Age D'Or has a pedigree which suggests she can win races but raced far too freely over a furlong further on Polytrack when last seen in March. Preference, though, goes to BE BE KING as he has been contesting stronger races recently and this represents an easier assignment.

ATR VERDICT: HAPPY HARMONY is entitled to build on her debut effort where she looked green at Musselburgh and she has the assistance of champion jockey Silvestre De Sousa second time up. Swift And Sure bumped into a good horse in the shape of Natalie's Joy at Goodwood and is likely to go close here, while Mersey and newcomer Strict Tempo look best of the remainder.

He went up 6lb for winning at Nottingham in November and he can prove capable of defying a 227-day absence. Isomer can bounce back after finishing last on his latest start at York, while Poet's Society has been knocking on the door recently and completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: AQUA LIBRE made virtually all of the running on her return to action over C&D when winning by two lengths and she can handle a 5lb rise in the weights under similar tactics. Sir Jamie has been in excellent form recently and he is respected on those performances with the potential for more to come, while No Approval is capable of better having only beaten one rival home at Brighton last time.

Top Tip: AQUA LIBRE (2)

ATR VERDICT: It might pay to side with INDIAN PURSUIT in what looks a tricky puzzle for punters to solve. He produced his best effort for some time when fourth over slightly further at Catterick and, with Silvestre De Sousa a positive jockey booking, he should go close off 1lb lower. Masquerade Bling has been knocking on the door and is likely to be in the mix again, while Yogyogyogyogy and Spellmaker are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: It's A Wish warrants plenty of respect on her handicap debut with Silvestre De Sousa booked to ride, while Spot Lite, Spanish Star and Llamrei also have some form which gives them bits and pieces of chances. However, CENT FLYING's recent win and placed efforts at the track show him to be arriving in top form and he rates the one to beat, despite a further 2lb rise in the ratings.
