Long Handicap: Snoop 7 - 5

ATR VERDICT: BERLUSCA was an impressive winner over C&D when drawing clear of his rivals in an apprentice contest and can follow up, even with a 7lb higher mark to contend with. Ventura Gold has only risen 2lb for a victory at Musselburgh and can keep the selection honest, while My Fantasea is 1lb lower than his Wolverhampton second and warrants respect, despite looking much more comfortable on the all-weather. Fleetfoot Jack and Broken Force are two others to note.

Top Tip: BERLUSCA (4)

Watch out for: VENTURA GOLD (7)

Long Handicap: Teepee Time 7 - 8

ATR VERDICT: William Haggas' lightly-raced ISLAND OF LIFE got off the mark in a competitive Sandown handicap last weekend and can quickly follow up from a 4lb higher mark, with top Haydock rider Richard Kingscote in the saddle. The hat-trick seeking Bellevarde has to be respected, while Mythical Spirit was only beaten a length on her return to turf at Carlisle and the dual all-weather winner has to be on the shortlist, along with penalised Ayr scorer Economic Crisis.

Top Tip: ISLAND OF LIFE (5)

Watch out for: MYTHICAL SPIRIT (8)

ATR VERDICT: MORE THAN THIS was an easy winner of a novice event at Ayr last month and he is clearly the one to beat, despite a 6lb penalty. Zoffee is a full-brother to the useful handicapper Al Neksh and, further back, is from the family of the top-class filly Crystal Music. With that in mind, this 100,000gns yearling has to be respected. Arctic Sound is another newcomer who merits consideration.

ATR VERDICT: MOSALIM was only narrowly denied in a similar race over C&D last month and the application of first-time blinkers can see him return to winning ways. De Medici's recent form suggests that he should be in the mix once again, although he would have to prove himself on fast ground. The in-form Hombre Casado and Zoffalee, who has had wind surgery since he was last seen, are others to note.

Top Tip: MOSALIM (4)

ATR VERDICT: Lamloom has been a beaten favourite the last twice and patience is wearing thin with him, though he should do better back over a mile. My Amigo had his excuses at York and will enjoy this return to a smaller field, but MUDALLEL looks to be the most solid option on offer. Ed Dunlop's charge shaped as though needing the run on his reappearance, and the booking of Richard Kingscote might be a shrewd move by connections.

ATR VERDICT: Warren Greatrex is 3-6 with his Flat runners on turf this year so any market support for Bodes Well would be worth noting, while Perisher ran well from a bad draw at Kempton on debut and should appreciate this step up from 7f. Strategist represents powerful connections, but HISTORY WRITER makes more appeal. Second in a hot race at Nottingham last time, the Canford Cliffs colt would appreciate a stronger pace and could well get it.
