TIMEFORM VIEW: Given the level of form she's achieved, this should prove a mere formality for WORSHIP before she returns to listed/pattern class. Aljady and Boundary Lane both created positive impressions when winning last time, the latter on her debut, and would be the pair to concentrate on if the selection didn't give her running.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Ivan Furtado seems to have quickly found the key to LAITH ALAREEN, bouncing back to get off the mark on just his second outing for the yard, so he's worth a chance to follow that up as he begins to fulfil his potential. Me Before You has had excuses the last twice and is far from one to write off, while last-time-out winner Undercover Brother warrants respect.
