ATR VERDICT: WOODSIDE WONDER was clear of the rest of the opposition when finding just one too good over this C&D last time and with the winner of that race following up to frank the form, there appears to be plenty to suggest a big performance from Keith Dalgleish's charge is on the cards. Packington Lane is entitled to run well having finished third from a wide draw at Chester, while Global Goddess can be forgiven her latest effort in the Queen Mary and should be much more involved in this lesser grade with first-time cheekpieces equipped.

Top Tip: WOODSIDE WONDER (2)

Watch out for: PACKINGTON LANE (4)

Long Handicap: Trulove 8 - 1, King Of Castilla 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: ALSVINDER managed to take advantage of his declining handicap mark to get his head in front over this C&D last time and he could score again from 4lb higher following that first turf victory. Scoundrel was successful at Musselburgh earlier this month and he shouldn't be far away, although the third that day, Burmese Blazer, is much better off at these weights and could reverse the form.

Top Tip: ALSVINDER (1)

ATR VERDICT: C&D winner MUJASSAM can land the hat-trick following a fair 3lb rise having proved to be brave from his revised mark when winning at Musselburgh last time. Hee Haw scored over track and trip from 4lb higher last year and is respected despite struggling to hit those heights this season, while Cameo Star followed up his course success two starts ago with a respectable effort at Pontefract.

ATR VERDICT: The lightly-raced KILLDEER has not been disgraced in three outings so far this season, with his latest 1m2f Salisbury showing suggesting there should be more to come stepping up in trip on his handicap bow. Mutadaffeq has been knocking on the door and is respected, while Multellie warrants respect having been dropped 1lb following a useful run at Ripon when only beaten two-and-a-half lengths.

ATR VERDICT: C&D winner FALCON'S FIRE held on well to score by a short-head over the extended 1m4f at Musselburgh last time and is expected to remain competitive off 1lb lower now dropping back slightly in trip. Granite City Doc was only beaten half-a-length over this track and trip last time and has place claims off an unchanged mark. The pick of the remainder may be the consistent Blue Havana.

Long Handicap: Let Right Be Done 8 - 11, Plastiki 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: PLANSINA was touched over 1m at Wetherby last time and wouldn't need to find much improvement to get back on the winning trail. Global Wonder is 3lb higher than when defeated by a nose at Chelmsford last time and is expected to mount another bold bid. The pick of the remainder may be Colour Contrast, who steps back up in trip after finding the extended 7f trip at Ayr on the sharp side when last sighted.

ATR VERDICT: MORTICIA has held her form well in novice company and is expected to go close off an opening mark of 72 now sent handicapping. Beatbybeatbybeat is 5lb higher than when thwarted by a neck on the all-weather at Wolverhampton last month and may be able to play a supporting role, while Ventura Royal, who seemingly failed to stay the extended 1m1f trip at Beverley last time, is another to consider now she drops back in distance.
