ATR VERDICT: FACE LIKE THUNDER benefited from the return to a mile when winning by five lengths at Thirsk at the end of last month. He is reunited with Jason Watson and an 8lb rise may not be enough to stop him here. Choral Music bounced back from a disappointing effort at Chelmsford when second, only beaten a nose, at Windsor on his latest outing, and he can go close once again. Indicia and The Groove look best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: SMASHING LASS shaped on her latest start, when second at Newcastle, as though the step up to a mile would be no concern, and the booking of Jason Watson looks a notable one. Sesame has placed on both of her starts to date in nurseries and a change of scenery could feasibly spark some improvement, while Kenoughty could go well if bouncing back to the form of his Nottingham third.

ATR VERDICT: SYLVIA'S MOTHER got off the mark at the fifth attempt by a neck at Chelmsford when he had Running Tide (fourth) in behind, and the daughter of Foxwedge could have more to come returning to turf. Running Tide was a shade unlucky on that occasion having stumbled coming out of the stalls, but he could easily take a step forward for the application of first-time blinkers. Kg Passion was runner-up at Wolverhampton when last seen and can benefit from a drop to 5f.

Top Tip: SYLVIA'S MOTHER (3)

ATR VERDICT: GOOD BIRTHDAY cost 500,000 euros at the Goffs Yearling Sale last September and, on breeding, is fancied to make an instant impact being out of a Listed juvenile winner in Germany. Fenjal represents a yard currently in excellent form and they are more than capable of producing debutant winners, while a return to 7f could see an improved effort from Fox Fearless as he was disappointing when sent off favourite over 1m at Newmarket.

ATR VERDICT: CHRISELLAINE was a useful winner when last seen, scoring at Newcastle by two lengths in September last year, and Charles Hills' lightly-raced three-year-old has the ability to get involved once again if returning from a year off the track in the same form. Muraahin was a beaten favourite when third at Salisbury but may benefit encountering slighter faster ground now and remains of interest, while Blue Willow was a place further adrift that day and the 160,000gns Exceed and Excel filly is another open to improvement following that debut experience.

Top Tip: CHRISELLAINE (3)

ATR VERDICT: BEYOND EQUAL was nearly back to the form that saw him rack up an impressive brace earlier in the season when narrowly denied at Windsor last time and, racing off the same mark, has the chance to play a leading part once again. Windsor winner Sir Roderic has to be respected under a 6lb penalty, with the in-form Diamond Dougal and veteran Ashpan Sam others to note.

ATR VERDICT: LANDUE notched his second win in succession when trying the course and distance for the first time earlier this month and, escaping a penalty with that victory coming in an apprentice contest, he can land the hat-trick this time. The Night King was only a neck away at Yarmouth last month and has to be respected having thrived up in trip that day, while Stand Firm and Alucinado are others who hinted at improving on their latest outings.

Top Tip: LANDUE (3)

Watch out for: THE NIGHT KING (2)
