ATR VERDICT: MONKEYLOU should enjoy this soft ground for Gordon Elliott and Davy Russell and showed plenty of ability when winning on the Flat at Killarney four weeks ago. He will have been schooled intensively by his classy operation and looks sure to be given a prominent ride. Flat To The Max represents the same stable and did it well on heavy ground on his only outing for Ger Lyons before switching yards, while Lever Du Soleil could prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: DONT HESITATE was a two-time winner in France last year and must be feared making her debut after a long absence for Willie Mullins and Jared Sullivan. The five-year-old is exactly the type that this combination thrives with and this looks to be a nice opening for her to strike. Light Of My Life slipped when travelling reasonably well at Tramore last time, while Inner Knowing could prove best of the remainder with Barry Geraghty booked to ride.

ATR VERDICT: SHE'S MADE IT has looked good lately when placing in competitive events, and looks good enough to win one of these modest handicap hurdle events. The five-year-old goes through this sort of ground and remains open to improvement at the age of just five. Trendsetter struggled on the Flat last time but previously ran a decent race in this sphere at Roscommon, while La Regle showed promise in maiden company last season and an opening handicap mark of 89 looks fair.

ATR VERDICT: PRESENTING MAHLER couldn't have won any easier on her most recent start at the Listowel Festival last Saturday, and connections bid to take advantage of a lower mark over hurdles. Minnies Secret is of interest making her handicap debut having shown some useful form last season, while first-time cheekpieces could make a difference to Platinum Empress.

ATR VERDICT: BOMBER JACKSON scored with a bit in hand when a surprise winner at Listowel last time and a 6lb rise may not be enough to stop him landing a quick follow up here. Wexford second Oskar High could have more in the locker and a 3lb rise for being beaten less than two lengths looks fair. Dundee Lad will appreciate the forecast going and makes some appeal, with Shimmer and Shine also worthy of a place on the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: MONTALBANO's only chase win came on heavy ground and Willie Mullins' six-year-old should appreciate the return to the mud here, while he was in the process of running a big race when falling two out at Listowel in the summer when last seen. Flaxen Flare is a solid alternative who seems sure to be thereabouts if the favourite fails to fire, while point winner Cloudy Day is interesting on just her third Rules appearance.

ATR VERDICT: Holly Flight makes some appeal on her placed efforts at Roscommon and Tramore this summer and commands respect, though marginal preference is for RINGRONE CASTLE, who impressed over 3m at Roscommon when scoring off 8lb lower on his penultimate outing. Jamesmicheal was seven lengths adrift of the selection in fifth that day but could feasibly narrow the gap now reopposing on better terms.

ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott's Dona Katharina took a step in the right direction when third over 2m2f at Sligo last time and is expected to continue her progression and go close once more. For win purposes, however, preference is for Willie Mullins' newcomer MT LEINSTER, who is expected to know his job first time out. Let The Heirs Walk makes some appeal on his Listowel sixth last time and could also take a hand.
