TIMEFORM VIEW: An interesting opener with ROUGE VIF the selection. There was plenty to like about the way he won a bumper at Ludlow in March and he seems sure to make his mark over hurdles given he's from a good jumping family. Crooks Peak is another fine hurdling prospect who is sure to have his supporters. Colonel Custard is also respected.

TIMEFORM VIEW: NINTH WAVE was snapped up for £40,000 by Trevor Hemmings following a point win in April and placed with Philip Hobbs, so it would come as no surprise were he up to the task. This looks an above-average contest though, with Winningseverything, Enriolo and Hold The Note interesting newcomers.
