ATR VERDICT: WALDSTERN built on his debut victory in a novice contest on the July Course at Newmarket when picking up minor money under a penalty at Haydock last time. John Gosden's charge is interesting now stepping up in grade and is entitled to improve for this stiffer test given he's a half-brother to the classy Waldgeist. Sydney Opera House returned to form when second in the Royal Lodge and holds stablemate Norway on their earlier encounter in a Curragh maiden.

ATR VERDICT: Andre Fabre's French raider PERSIAN KING bolted up by five lengths in a conditions contest at Chantilly last time and looks the one they all have to beat as he continues on a sharp upward curve. Kadar fetched 700,000 euros at the breeze-ups and left a strong impression when winning a novice event over this trip first time out at Haydock, while Magna Grecia commands respect given he won on debut for Aidan O'Brien at Naas.

ATR VERDICT: TOO DARN HOT confirmed himself to be a colt out of the top drawer when winning the Champagne Stakes at Doncaster last month and he is hard to oppose based on that evidence. Sangarius has caught the eye on both of his previous starts and he should be capable of going well, although he will need to take another step forward to be successful. Anthony Van Dyck only found Quorto too good in the National Stakes last time out and he is another who should be in the mix. Advertise has to prove his ability to stay the trip but his consistency cannot be knocked.

ATR VERDICT: Theglasgowwarrior has been running well all season and could run a big race at a fair price, while Vis A Vis has been a market mover throughout the week and the addition to the saddle of Cesarewitch specialist Silvestre De Sousa is worth noting. Willie Mullins runs seven and Stratum, Limini and Low Sun are all worthy of respect, but this can go the way of JUST IN TIME, who has won three of his last four for Alan King. His victory at Doncaster last time in the Mallard was mightily impressive, and he looks likely to get his preferred strong pace in this cavalry charge. St Leger third Southern France looks to be the class horse in the race, but only two three-year-olds have won this in the last 25 years, while Cleonte has a nice profile but would have preferred some rain to be more competitive.

ATR VERDICT: A return to seven furlongs saw BARRISTAN THE BOLD back to his very best, when drawing clear to score at Chester last time, and the mount of Patrick Pilley is of serious interest once again. Shallow Hal got off the mark on heavy ground last time and is respected, although underfoot conditions will be much quicker this time around. A return to a sounder surface could be in the favour of the lightly-raced Happy Power, who was a beaten favourite at Hamilton last month. Indian Viceroy's hat-trick bid ended in defeat when up to 1m at Doncaster and the drop in trip can help, with Baronial Pride the pick of the Richard Fahey pair.

ATR VERDICT: DIFFERENT LEAGUE, the highest rated performer in this line-up, certainly hasn't disgraced herself in Group 1 company the last twice, beaten just over two lengths in the Prix de l'Abbaye at Longchamp six days ago, and she looks sure to mount a bold bid with her sights lowered. Classical Times posted solid win and placed efforts at this level before finishing third in Group 3 company at Newcastle and she should give another good account on her return from a 105-day break, while Most Gifted, not beaten far at Group 3 level latest, and the John Gosden/Frankie Dettori representative Perfection are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: A fiercely competitive event with only 9lb splitting the nine declared runners on official ratings. Snowy Winter has performed well in Ireland of late, winning a Listed event and touched off in this company latest, and she can show up well, while Awesometank makes plenty of appeal following two runner-up finishes at this level. Goodwood Listed scorer Gabr and the French raider Trais Fluors are others to note, but a chance is taken on BESHAAAYIR. She arguably produced a career-best performance when readily winning a 1m Listed event here last time and shouldn't be inconvenienced by this extra furlong.
