ATR VERDICT: BATTS ROCK has won twice on the Flat since joining Gordon Elliott and the Fastnet Rock gelding could be the one to beat as he switches to hurdles. Stablemate Empire Burleque hasn't been seen since well held in a Grade 2 bumper in February but could have more to come now hurdling, and he has tasted success in the past. He is the pick of the Gigginstown pair, with Henry De Bromhead's Milliner having his first day at school, while it would be no surprise to see the mare She'stherightone make the podium.

Top Tip: BATTS ROCK (3)

Watch out for: EMPIRE BURLEQUE (6)

ATR VERDICT: SILVER STAR landed his second success since joining Gordon Elliott when drawing clear at Downpatrick last Friday and he is hard to oppose quickly bounced out under a 6lb penalty. Bay Hill won well at Listowel last month and is respected having gone close since on the Flat two weeks ago, while it's hard to rule out Jessica Harrington's C&D winner Conron at a track where the Moone handler often has success at.

Top Tip: SILVER STAR (1)

ATR VERDICT: Only a disqualification has been able to stop KUIPER BELT of late and the four-year-old can further enhance his reputation having proved this intermediate distance poses no problems at Clonmel last time. Slippery Serpent transferred his useful summer Flat form to timber when runner-up at Listowel 36 days ago and he could have more to offer, while Steel Wave remains well treated over hurdles and can't be ignored for a top set-up.

ATR VERDICT: CADMIUM has struggled to match the impression he created when romping away with a Punchestown Festival handicap on three outings since. However, Willie Mullins' chaser hinted at being back to his best when second behind Ornua in a Roscommon Grade 3 earlier this month and it would be no surprise to see the six-year-old turn the tables on his elder rival in receipt of weight this time. Gordon Elliott holds a strong hand with hat-trick seeking Cubomania and Mitchouka, who has useful form in juvenile Graded hurdles to fall back on and was about to make a winning start over fences at Gowran before falling at the last. Winter Escape bolted up at Galway and he is a gelding with lots of ability.

Top Tip: CADMIUM (2)

ATR VERDICT: ROAD TO RESPECT was successful in this race 12 months ago (Sub Lieutenant third and Outlander sixth) before producing four top quality performances at the highest level, including a fourth-placed finish in the Cheltenham Gold Cup. At just seven years old, he should be equally as good this season, if not even better, and gets the vote to make a winning reappearance once again. Sub Lieutenant readily beat Sandymount Duke on his latest outing at the Galway Festival and he can show up well here, while Snow Falcon warrants respect following his determined victory in the Kerry National last month.

ATR VERDICT: You won't often go wrong following Jamie Codd in these amateur rider events, indeed the County Wexford man partnered the winner 12 months ago, and he appears to have another big chance with SIZING ROME this time around. The six-year-old wasn't beaten far at Downpatrick when last sighted and could potentially improve for having first-time cheekpieces fitted today. Rolling Revenge brings course-winning form to the table and is respected off 1lb lower than when third on his reappearance at Tipperary in July, while Sweet Destination and Shanklys Dawn are others to keep an eye on.

ATR VERDICT: Golazo is sure to attract plenty of support representing Willie and Patrick Mullins, while Behind The Curtain and Chapmanshype also hail from stable's that have enjoyed plenty of bumper success down the years. Bathiva hasn't shown too much in a couple of starts between the flags but having Jamie Codd aboard can only boost his chances, although the one that makes most appeal is ABACADABRAS. The four-year-old son of Davidoff represents the same connections that won this race 12 months ago with the high-class Felix Desjy and local trainer Gordon Elliott will have him ready for his first day at school.
