TIMEFORM VIEW: WEATHER FRONT has had a very productive time on the Flat this year and is likely to be winning over hurdles soon based on last month's Carlisle second. He's preferred to Mistiroc, who seemingly isn't the force of old on the Flat but should still be up to making his presence felt in a race like this now hurdling. Hitman Fred should strip fitter for his recent hurdle bow and is best of the rest.

TIMEFORM VIEW: It all came together for CHANCEITON at Kelso last time and he's taken to build on that and make light of a 5 lb rise. Top Billing showed he can do something off his reduced mark when third at Perth in the spring and should go well, while Dubh des Champs is a potential improver over this longer trip. Lawtop Legend completes the shortlist.
