ATR VERDICT: BREAK THE SILENCE is only 3lb higher than when scoring over 7f here in August and a return to this venue could see him mount a bold bid. Zapateado has remained in good order since her Chepstow victory in late summer, while Shearian is a C&D winner who is beginning to look feasibly treated again and is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: GILDED HEAVEN shaped like there could be plenty more to come when coming through nicely to get off the mark at the fifth attempt with a bit in hand over 1m at Newcastle last weekend and a 6lb rise may not be enough to thwart the double bid of Roger Varian's charge. The Right Choice has been running well in defeat on turf over shorter and must be respected stepping up to a mile and tackling Fibresand for the first time. Showboating is a dual C&D winner and that earns him plenty of respect.

ATR VERDICT: FAREEQ has slipped to a mark only 1lb higher than when scoring over C&D in April and a bold bid is expected. That course form just earns him the nod over Honey Gg, who has been in good heart on soft ground recently, and Cupid's Arrow, an impressive winner at Redcar last week but 0-5 on the all-weather. Novabridge arrives on the back of a win and a good third at Newcastle and can have his say.

ATR VERDICT: This shouldn't take much winning and it could be a good opportunity for HOME BEFORE DUSK to get off the mark. Keith Dalglish's gelding was knocking on the door over 1m2f in the summer, including when second in a handicap at Ayr last time out, and the layoff isn't much of a concern for a yard in excellent form of late. Knightly Spirit has shown a liking for soft ground and could be suited by the switch to Fibresand, while Sociologist contends on official ratings and is interesting taking a marked step up in trip.

ATR VERDICT: It could pay to take a chance on SERENITY NOW, a five-time course winner who should strip fitter for his return from a layoff at Catterick late last month. He is the only C&D winner in the field and a few of these have questions to answer regarding the surface and over this marathon trip. Sbraase is a very interesting Irish raider for Gavin Cromwell and was noted doing his best work at the finish when fifth over 1m6f at Navan last time out. He could strike if the selection fails to recapture his best form, although Via Delle Volte and The Last Debutante must be respected.

ATR VERDICT: A tricky sprint handicap for punters to solve but there is plenty to like about the chances of ARCHIMEDES, a four-time course winner who has been in fine form on turf of late. He carries top weight but is rated 1lb lower than his 5f success here in March and gets the nod over Eponina, who blew away the cobwebs at Leicester last month and has gone well here this year, and Essential, a 7f scorer at this venue off 1lb lower in the summer.

ATR VERDICT: Simon Crisford boasts a good record at this venue and if his MAYBE TODAY takes to Fibresand then she could take some beating. The Windsor scorer was doing her best work at the finish when second in a decent handicap at that same venue last month and should relish this extra yardage. Victoria Drummond returned from a layoff to score over an extended 1m3f at Chelmsford recently and, with scope for improvement on her handicap bow, she looks most likely to capitalise if the selection doesn't go on the surface. Dommersen, who drops in grade and is sliding down the ratings, could prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: POINT ZERO comes out clear on official ratings in this 5f novice stakes and it looks a good chance for him to get off the mark. Mick Appleby's charge finished clear of the rest when collared right on the line in a similar C&D event last time out in late August and it is hard to see any of these reeling him in if he gets loose on the front end again. Fink Hill showed improvement with a decent fourth in a 6f Chelmsford handicap last week and rates the biggest threat along with National Anthem, who showed ability on debut at Nottingham but that was 13 months ago.

Top Tip: POINT ZERO (7)

Watch out for: FINK HILL (3)
