ATR VERDICT: Paul Henderson bids for his third victory in a row in the contest having landed this with Un Beau Roman (2016) and 12 months ago with Doitforthevillage, who returns to defend his crown. He is only 2lb higher this time around but came into this contest last year on the back of a couple of prep runs so could be vulnerable after a 218-day break. Preference, therefore, goes to A HARE BREATH as he has always gone extremely well fresh, winning two decent handicap hurdles in the process and finishing a good fourth here in the Greatwood two years ago, and looks unexposed on only his fourth start over fences. Bun Doran has always threatened to land a prize of this nature and is respected along with Peppay Le Pugh, who should prove happier back at 2m after his third to Whenyerreadyfreddie at Ascot less than a fortnight ago.

Top Tip: A HARE BREATH (1)

Watch out for: DOITFORTHEVILLAGE (3)
