ATR VERDICT: FOR GOOD MEASURE failed to land a gamble at the October meeting here three weeks ago, but he still shaped encouragingly in fifth spot and the booking of leading amateur Derek O'Connor suggests that connections mean business. These conditions look perfect for the full brother to Balthazar King, and a mark of 130 is there to be taken advantage of. The Young Master returned to form when making a winning reappearance at Chepstow 34 days ago, while Bally Longford and Sky Pirate could prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: Dream Du Grand Val is Nicky Henderson's Million in Mind partnership horse for the season and he has some interesting form in France, while Dostal Phil remains open to plenty of improvement after just two UK starts and has his second run since a wind operation here. Jacbequick likes good ground and should be competitive despite an 8lb rise for winning at Fakenham last time, but this can go to SNAPDRAGON FIRE, who appreciated the drop to 2m in victory at Huntingdon last time and looks to have more to offer given his smart placed novice form last season.

ATR VERDICT: Paul Henderson bids for his third victory in a row in the contest having landed this with Un Beau Roman (2016) and 12 months ago with Doitforthevillage, who returns to defend his crown. He is only 2lb higher this time around but came into this contest last year on the back of a couple of prep runs so could be vulnerable after a 218-day break. Preference, therefore, goes to A HARE BREATH as he has always gone extremely well fresh, winning two decent handicap hurdles in the process and finishing a good fourth here in the Greatwood two years ago, and looks unexposed on only his fourth start over fences. Bun Doran has always threatened to land a prize of this nature and is respected along with Peppay Le Pugh, who should prove happier back at 2m after his third to Whenyerreadyfreddie at Ascot less than a fortnight ago.

ATR VERDICT: A contest that has gone to some top-class individuals over the years with Denman (2006) and Taquin Du Seuil (2013) two examples of those going on to win in novice company at the Festival here. Nicky Henderson throws two darts with Jenkins, winner of a two-runner contest at Stratford when beating a vastly-inferior rival, and Grade 2-winning novice hurdler MR WHIPPED. The latter gets the vote as he looked a work in progress all through last season and yet he managed to win the Leamington at Warwick despite his inexperience. Although he was pulled up in the Albert Bartlett, the son of Beneficial shaped well for the majority of the contest and was wisely spared a slog up the hill when his chance was gone. His trainer has a strong team of novice chasers and it would be a surprise if he couldn't make his mark in this sphere. Jerrystack went unbeaten in two novices hurdles in 2017 for Philip Hobbs and is a fascinating contender returning from a lengthy absence, while White Moon had excuses for a poor effort behind On The Blind Side at Sandown last December and comes from a stable currently in excellent form.

ATR VERDICT: TIGER ROLL landed the Cross Country over C&D at the Festival in March before moving on to take even bigger glory at Aintree and the Grand National winner will be hard to beat if fully tuned up on his seasonal reappearance. He has to concede weight all round here, including 7lb to regular in this sphere in Bless The Wings. The selection meets his enigmatic stablemate on the same terms as when putting 11 lengths between them at Liverpool and he can account for his that familiar challenger once again. Frequent banks runner Josies Orders has won three times over the track and trip and has to be respected, while Midnight Shot has been in good order throughout the summer and arrives here fresh from a 13-length rout of useful opposition at Fakenham.

ATR VERDICT: Nicky Henderson won this last season with On The Blind Side and looks to hold leading claims once again with the highly-regarded Pym, who steps up in trip having had his colours lowered at Ascot. He shaped there that this extra distance could suit and the Chepstow winner has to be respected with Noel Fehily taking over in the saddle. Darlac, who finished a close second to a 135-rated hurdler in a point, created a taking impression when a 17-length winner on his hurdles bow in October and has to be respected for the Gold Cup-winning team of Colin Tizzard and Richard Johnson, while C&D scorer Double Treasure has relished the return to timber of late and was not beaten far when second in the Grade 2 Persian War last month. However, preference is for COOLANLY, an early faller when favourite in that Chepstow contest, who ran well in novice company last season. He finished second to the talented Vinndication at Leicester on his hurdles bow before running with credit at both of the major spring festivals, including when fifth in the Grade 1 Top Novices' Hurdle at Aintree, and gets the chance to show what he is capable at this distance now.

Top Tip: COOLANLY (3)
