ATR VERDICT: WEATHER FRONT got within two lengths of the well-regarded Good Boy Bobby at Carlisle on his hurdles reappearance, before winning comfortably at Hexham earlier this month. Karen McIntock's five-year-old must rate as the one to beat here despite conceding weight all round. Ruth Jefferson's horses have been tending to need the run on their first outing, so it would be no surprise to see the stable's youngster Raecius Felix improve on his opening showing, while Jedd O'Keeffe's useful Flat performer Remember The Days chased home some decent rivals on his first hurdles run and is respected.

Top Tip: WEATHER FRONT (1)
Watch out for: RAECIUS FELIX (6)
