ATR VERDICT: CARLITOS BAY was travelling nicely over course and distance in November when an error four from home brought an end to his chances, but he was second against useful opposition at Down Royal the time before and should play a leading part here with a clear round. Young Paddymc is sure to be popular having finished second at Limerick, although he seems an out-and-out stayer and may not be seen at his best until tried over marathon trips. Roxboro Road is worth keeping an eye on for shrewd connections having not been asked too many questions when fourth at Tramore on his chasing debut.

Top Tip: CARLITOS BAY (3)
Watch out for: YOUNG PADDYMC (12)

ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott declared five and the best may be Leopardstown winner GUN DIGGER, who seeks to build on his 18-length romp over Christmas. Stablemate Blow By Blow got the better of the selection in a Grade 3 over hurdles last winter but the Cheltenham Festival winner has been slightly disappointing on his most recent outings, while Ben Dundee's jumping has let him down the last twice. A Plus Tard is another useful recruit to Cheveley Park's squad of jumpers, and the Listed winner in France saw off some useful rivals when scoring at Naas. Winter Escape is hard to rule out in search of a hat-trick having landed a Graded contest at Cork back in November.

Watch out for: A PLUS TARD (9)

ATR VERDICT: PEACOCKS SECRET was travelling well and in the mix when falling on his hat-trick bid at Clonmel. He must have leading claims off just a 1lb higher mark and is sure to go close, over a distance he thrives at, if none the worse for that fall. Market's Field was a winner of his only chase start, which came over this trip, and he may be the pick of the JP McManus duo. Oscar Lantern and Take The Cash are worthy of a market check as well.

Long Handicap: The Ballyboys 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: It might pay to side with SE MO LAOCH in what looks a tricky puzzle for punters to solve. The eight-year-old has been running consistently well for a number of months, gets on well with this jockey (won and placed twice in three starts), and another bold bid is expected. Snugsborough Hall chased home the selection here and backed that up with another solid placed effort at Down Royal. He is likely to be in the shake-up again, while handicap debutant Whisperinthebreeze and Major Destination, equipped with first-time blinkers, are just a couple more with claims.

Top Tip: SE MO LAOCH (8)

ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins has an excellent record in this contest, winning seven of the last 10 renewals, and the Closutton maestro has two big chances this time around with Buildmeupbuttercup and HARRIE. The former was a smart bumper performer last season for Mick Channon and won a 29-runner maiden on her hurdling debut/first outing for this stable last month. She receives the mares' allowance and makes plenty of appeal, but slight preference is for her stablemate, who travelled and jumped with real purpose when winning his maiden hurdle over 2m5f at Tramore, two assets that will stand him in great stead now dropping back in distance. The French import also moves as though he will improve for this switch to a faster surface. Leopardstown handicap winner Jetez has a definite chance, while Swordsman might prove best of the Gigginstown trio.

ATR VERDICT: ACTIVE FORCE boasts some rock-solid bumper form, chasing home the likes of Sancta Simona and Battleoverdoyen before winning at Limerick over the Christmas period, and with a point-to-point victory under his belt, he looks sure to play a leading role on his hurdling debut. Elixir D'Ainay won a bumper in France before joining Willie Mullins and a Grade 1 entry at next month's Dublin Racing Festival suggests that he has been showing plenty at home. Vision D'Honneur also merits consideration having performed well on his Irish/hurdling debut at Leopardstown on St Stephen's Day.

Top Tip: ACTIVE FORCE (1)

ATR VERDICT: STUCKER HILL arrives here on the back of two victories in the last couple of months and the daughter of Milan is hard to oppose in her bid for a hat-trick. Mag Brady has run well in defeat in both starts this campaign and she should be thereabouts once again, while Tara Dylan is on a workable mark if she can rediscover her best form.
