ATR VERDICT: HUMBLE HERO wasn't disgraced on his hurdling debut when second to a useful type of Ben Pauling's at Leicester last month and that experience won't be lost on him. A solid handicapper on the Flat for William Haggas, this track should play to his strengths and he could prove too strong for the likes of War Chief, who was lightly raced on the level, and Uttoxeter juvenile winner Idilico.

Top Tip: HUMBLE HERO (7)
Watch out for: WAR CHIEF (8)

ATR VERDICT: Kupertana has failed to complete her last two starts over fences, both of those efforts coming at Wincanton, so a clear round is paramount for Nicky Henderson's mare. She also has 6lb to give away to both of her rivals, including Listed hurdle winner BRILLARE MOMENTO. She makes her chasing debut here and, likely to have been well schooled by connections, a bold bid is expected. Little Miss Poet finished runner-up on her first try over fences on Boxing Day at Wincanton and can only improve from that experience.

Top Tip: BRILLARE MOMENTO (2)
Watch out for: LITTLE MISS POET (3)

ATR VERDICT: RAPPER improved from his hurdling debut at Bangor when finishing third at the same track last month to the same winner, The Some Dance Kid, and he warrants the utmost respect running at his trainer's local track. Stop The World shaped as though he needed the run on his first outing over timber at Chepstow last month and can improve for that effort, while Monk's View could be in the mix after his fourth to Kapcorse at Wincanton 12 days ago.

ATR VERDICT: WHOSHOTWHO shaped as though he didn't see out 2m7f when third to Daklondike at Haydock just before Christmas so the drop to 2m4f looks ideal for Dr Richard Newland's gelding. He will be more at home on a sounder surface and could be suited by a return to a right-handed track. Gortroe Joe can improve from what he showed on his chase debut at Ascot last month, while Truckers Highway is respected as he bids to land the hat-trick.

ATR VERDICT: NO NO JULIET proved that her impressive Fontwell victory two starts ago was not a fluke by running well in a competitive event at Ascot last time out. A reproduction of either of those efforts would give her a big chance this afternoon. Gold Chain is another who arrives here in good form, which means that she edges out Bang Bang Rosie and Perfect Summer to be the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: BEEVES has struggled in his last couple of starts but it was only in June last year that he finished second at Perth off a mark of 147 and that form gives him a big chance today. Marinero won a similar contest to this at Ascot when last seen in March and he should go well once again, while Road To Rome and Now Ben also merit consideration.

ATR VERDICT: BUCK'S BIN'S won well between the flags in Ireland in October and he has to be given the utmost respect today, having been subsequently purchased for 60,000 pounds. Getariver is another Irish point-to-point winner and cost 30,000 pounds in November, so he looks an obvious threat to the selection. Honourmission represents a yard who can get one ready first time out and he merits a market check.
