ATR VERDICT: After being campaigned at around 7f, KNOCKOUT BLOW caught the eye when third at Lingfield last week over 6f. The further drop in trip is unlikely to inconvenience the four-year-old and he has fallen to a tempting mark of 62. Sir Walter was much improved when third at Southwell eight days ago and warrants respect, while Toni's A Star is another name to take seriously.

ATR VERDICT: HANAKOTOBA stayed on well when second over this trip at Newcastle last time and it's worth noting that she won her only previous visit to Kempton. Arcadian Rocks showed promise in two of his three starts last year and has been gelded since last seen on the track, while Rock Bottom won a shade cosily at Wolverhampton seven days ago and is interesting under a 6lb penalty.

ATR VERDICT: SHARP OPERATOR didn't have a great run through the pack when second at Lingfield last time and better luck might see Charlie Wallis' charge claim an overdue success. Coming from stall one could allow Richard Kingscote to obtain a better position today, and the pair can account for Mullarkey, who finished a place behind the selection at Chelmsford 15 days ago. Born To Reason is on a nice mark but might prefer Wolverhampton looking at his overall record.

ATR VERDICT: ALATIA was last seen running respectably in a French Listed race 159 days ago and his previous form suggests that performance was not a fluke. If he can reproduce that effort today, he will be very hard to beat. Rectory Road and Engrossed both have to be considered given their previous winning form, but they are vulnerable under penalties. Shanghai Grace was only denied by a nose in a similar event at Newcastle last time and could prove to be the biggest threat, while Fume also has place credentials.

ATR VERDICT: KENTUCKY KINGDOM has only been narrowly denied on his last couple of starts in maiden/novice company and makes plenty of appeal on his handicap debut. My Dear Friend contested some competitive novice contests last year and is another who should be more at home in handicap company, while Spirit Warning edges out Spirit Kingdom to be the pick of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: GIVEN CHOICE is turned out under a penalty for her five-length victory over 1m6f at Wolverhampton earlier in the month and, likely to improve for this step up in trip, she is fancied to score again. Sunblazer has winning C&D form in the book and could feasibly figure having slipped 6lb below his last winning mark. The pick of the remainder may be Dalileo, who struck off this rating at Wolverhampton in September and romped home by seven lengths in a 2m seller latest.

ATR VERDICT: NYLON SPEED was returning from a spell over hurdles when winning a 1m4f handicap at Lingfield earlier this month and given the stylish manner of that victory, it would come as no surprise to see Alan King's charge defy a 5lb rise to strike again. Long Call is 6lb higher than when winning over 1m2f at Leicester in September and he is worth a market check now returning from the NH scene, as is New Agenda, a 128-rated hurdler who has Adam Kirby in the plate.

ATR VERDICT: Foreign Legion looked on good terms with himself when scoring over 1m at Chelmsford last time and demands respect now turned out under a penalty. Over this shorter trip, however, preference is for LE MANEGE ENCHANTE, who was headed in the final strides when second at Chelmsford recently (also 6f) and lines up off a 1lb lower mark here. Nuzha is effective under these conditions and no forlorn hope for a place.
